KENNEL CLUB CODE OF ETHICS

UPDATED 2023

All breeders who register their puppies, and new owners who register ownership of their dogs with the Kennel Club, accept the jurisdiction of the Kennel Club and undertake to abide by its general Code of Ethics.

Breeders/Owners:

1. Will properly house, feed, water and exercise all dogs under their care and arrange for appropriate veterinary attention if and when required.
2. Will agree without reservation that any veterinary surgeon performing an operation on any of their dogs which alters the natural conformation of the animal, or who carries out a caesarean section on a bitch, may report such operation to the Kennel Club.
3. Will agree that no healthy puppy will be culled. Puppies which may not conform to the Breed Standard should be placed in suitable homes.
4. Will abide by all aspects of the Animal Welfare Act.
5. Will not create demand for, nor supply, puppies that have been docked illegally.
6. Will agree not to breed from a dog or bitch which could be in any way harmful to the dog or to the breed.
7. Will not allow any of their dogs to roam at large or to cause a nuisance to neighbours or those carrying out official duties.
8. Will ensure that their dogs wear properly tagged collars and will be kept leashed or under effective control when away from home.
9. Will clean up after their dogs in public places or anywhere their dogs are being exhibited.
10. Will only sell dogs where there is a reasonable expectation of a happy and healthy life and will help with the re-homing of a dog if the initial circumstances change.

11. Will supply written details of all dietary requirements and give guidance concerning responsible ownership when placing dogs in a new home.
12. Will ensure that all relevant Kennel Club documents are provided to the new owner when selling or transferring a dog, and will agree, in writing, to forward any relevant documents at the earliest opportunity, if not immediately available.
13. Will not sell any dog to commercial dog wholesalers, retail pet dealers or directly or indirectly allow dogs to be given as a prize or donation in a competition of any kind. Will not sell by sale or auction Kennel Club registration certificates as stand alone items (not accompanying a dog).
14. Will not knowingly misrepresent the characteristics of the breed nor falsely advertise dogs nor mislead any person regarding the health or quality of a dog.
15. Members will, when breeding dogs, adopt as a minimum standard the principles, requirements and recommendations as embodied in the Kennel Club's Assured Breeder Scheme. It is strongly recommended that members who breed should apply to join the scheme.

BREACH OF THESE PROVISIONS MAY RESULT IN EXPULSION FROM CLUB MEMBERSHIP, AND/OR DISCIPLINARY ACTION BY THE KENNEL CLUB AND/OR REPORTING TO THE RELEVANT AUTHORITIES FOR LEGAL ACTION, AS APPROPRIATE

HISTORY OF THE LONDON COCKER SPANIEL SOCIETY

In 1932 a group of enthusiasts formed the London Sporting Spaniel Society, but after the War a slight change of direction and of name brought the London Cocker Spaniel Society into being and enabled the Kennel Club to grant it Challenge Certificates. Long-standing Secretary, Mr W. J. Riley, remained in that position and the first championship show was held in Westminster in 1946, the judges being Mr A. B. Nicolson (Glenbervie) for dogs and Mrs V. Lucas-Lucas (Sixshot) for bitches.

The Society from this time grew and attracted members from all over the British Isles and from other countries where Cockers were bred and shown. The following decades saw the post of Secretary taken on by Kay Baldwin and there is no doubt that she and her husband, Stan, worked tirelessly to make the Society the success that it is today. Indeed, it was said 'Kay is London Cocker'. She established the gundog training classes so that owners from urban areas could see their dogs respond to their natural instincts in the field, and many a relaxed Sunday afternoon was spent in the Buckinghamshire countryside thanks to the hospitality of Jim and Eve Cox (Beechshaw). Kay and Stan started the Newsletters to bring information to the members and soon afterwards the first Yearbooks were published. The pattern also became established for holding two members' limited or open shows and the championship show each year.

Several well-known breeders and personalities have been closely connected with the Society. Mrs Judy de Casembroot (Treetops) was President and was a great ambassador for the breed and the Society, encouraging members from other countries during her numerous overseas judging appointments. She was followed by Mrs Kay Doxford (Broomleaf) who, apart from being a highly successful breeder, was an accomplished artist and her drawings of Cockers are used by L.C.S.S. to this day.

Dr Esther Rickards was Chairman for a long while and when she died in the mid-70s the position went to Kay Baldwin, the Secretary's job then passing on to Bob Crisp, another long-standing officer. Thelma Dulley, who had worked with Kay, served the Society in more than one capacity and was Chairman at her retirement a few years ago.

Our current Patron, Jimmy Keizer, was Treasurer for many years working alongside 'Doc' and Kay. He has a long family association with the Society, his father, Max Keizer, having been a founder member of the London Sporting Spaniel Society. Betty Rice-Stringer (Kennelbourne), another loyal supporter, is now our President. The previous Vice-President, Dolly Leach, took over from Kay Baldwin the organisation of the gundog working tests, a task she carried out for many years. In 2008 a Field section sub-committee was formed under the guidance of Frank Geraghty.

The present Officers and Committee are working well together. We hope to serve the Society and the breed as well as did our predecessors and continue to take the Society in the right direction as one of the leading Cocker Spaniel clubs in the world.

HON GENERAL SECRETARY AND SHOW SECRETARY'S REPORT 2023

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen and thank you for your attendance today. As showing returns in full swing following covid this year's champ show, with judges Peter Darby – Bitches and Shiela Ewan – Dogs, was well supported. Our buffet was a particular success, and we thank Carol Burnett for the wonderful cake and Hilde Provost for 'the bubbles' which everyone enjoyed. We always welcome newcomers and were especially pleased to see several new faces at the shows this year.

The committee Christmas dinner was enjoyed by all who attended. The train strike unfortunately prevented some members from attending on this occasion. It was though a day to remember with first class food and the Kennel club was greatly appreciated as a venue.

Thanks to everyone who helps to make the London Cocker Spaniel Society such a success. The shows would not be possible without everyone's help and time. Damien and James especially, Bridget Harris for her generosity in making delicious cakes, Sarah for organising the kitchen with Natalie, Judith, and Hilary. We also thank Sarah for taking the minutes of meetings.

Looking forward to the next Champ Show we are pleased to have judges - Derek Shapland - Bitches
Samantha Galdman – Dogs.

Thanks also are extended to Carley Schooling – yearbook, Tracey Morgan – calendar and Tressa Fennel – raffle at champ show £400+ and open show £127.

In summary thanks to all present for their many and valued contributions to the society and its events.

Sue Warrington - ZAKOVA
Hon Secretary.

CHAIRMANS REPORT FOR 2023

Starting in reverse order it is with the kind permission of Joanna Darby our breed notes editor of Our Dogs that I open my report for 2023.

“What a lovely day out at London Cocker’s annual championship show. An icy start from home but the roads were actually fine and the journey took exactly the time that the sat nav predicted I’m still not sure I ever get out of Woking the same way I get in but all was well in both directions!

The hall had good heating on-thank goodness and away from the open doors it was quite warm. A good contingent of overseas exhibitors from all parts and so nice to see everyone, including Tamara Babester “home” for the weekend from Portugal. Our judges were Samantha Gladman dogs and Derek Shapland bitches, who had drawn 177 animals. There were as always a few absentees but actually not so many and most of the classes were well filled.....”

“.....This show is also known for getting us into the Christmas spirit and this year’s fancy dress was on a Disney theme. It was judged by Hilde Provost who looked well considering that she has been so poorly and had very serious surgery this year, it was lovely to see her. The winner was Claire White who had no less than 3 cockers under control as mini “Dalmations” with her Cruella outfit-they were terrific! Snow White was great and I think we were all very taken by the little lions representing The Lion King which were red cockers with colour matched manes. Well done everyone, you were all very creative.

Congratulations to all the main winners and to the Committee of London Cocker Spaniel Society- you did a great job on Saturday.”

The above does go to show just how much effort is given by the officers and committee and some non committee volunteers in helping to set up and run our society. This concludes my report for 2023.

Chairman

SHOW SECRETARY MR DAMIEN HUTTON-BABER (BABTONKELPIE)

The year 2023 was an exceptionally busy time for me with dog showing/organsing both London Cocker dog shows, my other dog show commitments and moving house. I am hoping for a slightly calmer and less manic 2024 now that me, my partner and Cockers have settled into our new home and no more building work is planned.

On 25th June 2023, our Open Show took place which was kindly judged by Mr. Colin Flowers (Totenkopf). BIS and BVIS were SH CH Lujesa Starman at Wylieview, RBIS was Aisza Figaro for Laurellakes and BPIS and BMPIS was Withiflor Touchstone. The officers and committee are grateful to all who entered and supported our judge who had travelled from Scotland.

On 2nd December 2023, our Christmas Championship Show took place. Dogs were judged by Mrs S. Gladman (Chativore) and bitches judged by Mr D. Shapland (Deracor). Entries for this show closed on 180 dogs making 249 entries, it was particularly nice to welcome exhibitors from Northern Ireland, Poland, Germany and other countries on mainland Europe. Thank you to all exhibitors who supported this show and congratulations to all winners (both judges actually agreed on all top awards without the need for our referee Mrs B. Rice-Stringer). The stewards and the committee are worthy of an extra special thank you as without them, this show would not have run as efficiently as it did.

The diary for 2024 sees our Open Show on 30th June with our judge being Mrs. S. Pilkington (Brimbeck) and our Christmas Championship Show on 7th December where dogs will be judged by Mrs. J. Smith (Luanshya) and bitches by Mr. R. Feyaerts (Billsor). We also plan on holding a Group Mentoring Day in conjunction with East Anglian Cocker Spaniel Society for those judges who wish to progress from JEP Level 2 to JEP Level 3, this will most likely take place in the second half of the year, full details to follow once confirmed.

I just wish to end by saying thank you to our Secretary Sue Warrington, since I took on the role of Show Secretary, she has kindly allowed and trusted me to take on more and more responsibility with organising the activities of the club, this kind of support and trust of less experienced people is key to protecting the future of our hobby and the society.

Take care and I look forward to welcoming you to our future shows and events we have planned for 2024.

JOANNA DARBY - OUR DOGS REPORT ON LCSS CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 2023

Cocker Spaniel Breed Notes 04.12.23

What a lovely day out at London Cocker's annual championship show. An icy start from home but the roads were actually fine and the journey took exactly the time that the sat nav predicted. I'm still not sure I ever get out of Woking the same way I get in but all was well in both directions!

The hall had the heating on – thank goodness and away from the open doors it was quite warm. A good contingent of overseas exhibitors from all parts and so nice to see everyone, including Tamara Babester "home" for the weekend from her new base in Portugal.

Our judges were Samantha Gladman, dogs and Derek Shapland, bitches, who had drawn 177 animals. There were as always a few absentees but actually not so many and most of the classes were well filled.

Sam chose her Limit class winner, Elaine Thomas's orange roan, Claramand Cracker for her dog CC – his second, following on from his first just last week. The Res CC winner was my young light blue, Classicway Call Time, what a lovely surprise! Best Puppy dog was Pat Whitehead's black and white Ryallcourt Step in Time from minor puppy and Best Veteran Dog the lovely blue Lindridge Bolt from the Blue, an international champion of course owned by Linda Czipott. Best Special Beginner Dog was Mags Robinson's Wilmerella Perfect Storm.

In bitches it was CC no 26 I believe, for Peter Collin and Mike Wildman's Sh Ch Oktumi Opalescence with Mike Masters and Mark Dott's young blue Manchela Little Tease in the Reserve CC spot. Best puppy bitch was litter brother to the BPD, so a wonderful day for Pat Whitehead, this one Ryallcourt Silent Witness at Tanrini, owned by Cornelia Norie Miller and Mat Griffiths, a light blue. Best veteran bitch was No Limit Esqueen from Poland, a black and white belonging to Sara Gorka and Best Special Beginner bitch, Cherry Stokes Harrell's Claramand One Vission between Chezza's, an orange roan.

At the end, the bitch was BIS, dog CC winner Res BIS, the dog was BPIS and Best Special Beginner in show and the bitch took Best Veteran.

This show is also known for getting us into the Chrismas spirit and this year's fancy dress was on a Disney theme. It was judged by Hilde Provost who looked well considering that she has been so poorly and had very serious surgery this year, it was lovely to see her. The winner was Claire White who had no less than 3 cockers under control as mini "Dalmations" with her Cruella outfit – they were terrific! Snow White was great and I think we were all very taken by the little lions representing The Lion King which were red cockers with colour matched manes. Well done everyone, you are very creative.

Congratulations to all the main winners and to the Committee of London Cocker Spaniel Society – you did a great job on Saturday.

CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW
SATURDAY 3RD DECEMBER 2023
JUDGE – DEREK SHAPLAND
BITCH CRITIQUE

I would sincerely like to thank The Officers and Committee for inviting me to judge at this prestigious show. I would also like to thank all of the exhibitors for the lovely entry and acceptance of my decisions. It was greatly appreciated even if it made some decisions difficult because of so many quality bitches.

Final thanks must go to my efficient stewards Lorraine Elliot and Michel Scanlon who kept me on the straight and narrow all day, they are truly excellent.

I had many good cockers to handle and judge but have some concerns about the excessive length in loins, lack of a good spring of riband narrow/close hindquarters. Some bitches who looked lovely when first in the ring paid the price for either too much weight and/or moving too close in hind movement.

The breed standard states :

“a cocker should have hindquarters that are well rounded and very muscular. Legs well boned and a good bend of stifle. Short below the hock allowing for plenty of drive. Please remember a cocker should be merry , sturdy, well balanced and short coupled”

LCSS CHRISTMAS FANCY DRESS COMPETITION 2023.

As our usual Father Christmas was otherwise occupied this year, I was invited to replace him to judge the “Disney” fancy dress competition.

On the day I met another Father Christmas who gladly wanted to assist me. Amazed to hear that this year is her 90th Christmas! After getting my best dress on + all my accessories and some “fillers” put on their place, (2 of my elves were out of breath by then) we were ready to do our “big entry” on the cat-/dogwalk.

We took a good look at all the ladies who made an effort to dress-up in lovely costumes. Where were the men this year?

After greeting everyone individually we made them go around so each one could show off themselves. They all looked great and some difficult choices had to be made to place the final 5.

The best was Cruella Deville and her 3 Dalmatians.

Second was Snow-white and her Snow-white-Cocker.

Third was a wonderful Lion-king.

Fourth was a lovely young Elf-girl with her Elf-assistant.

Fifth was another Lion-king.

In the competition was also Stitch and Minny Mouse who were not placed but also received some presents.

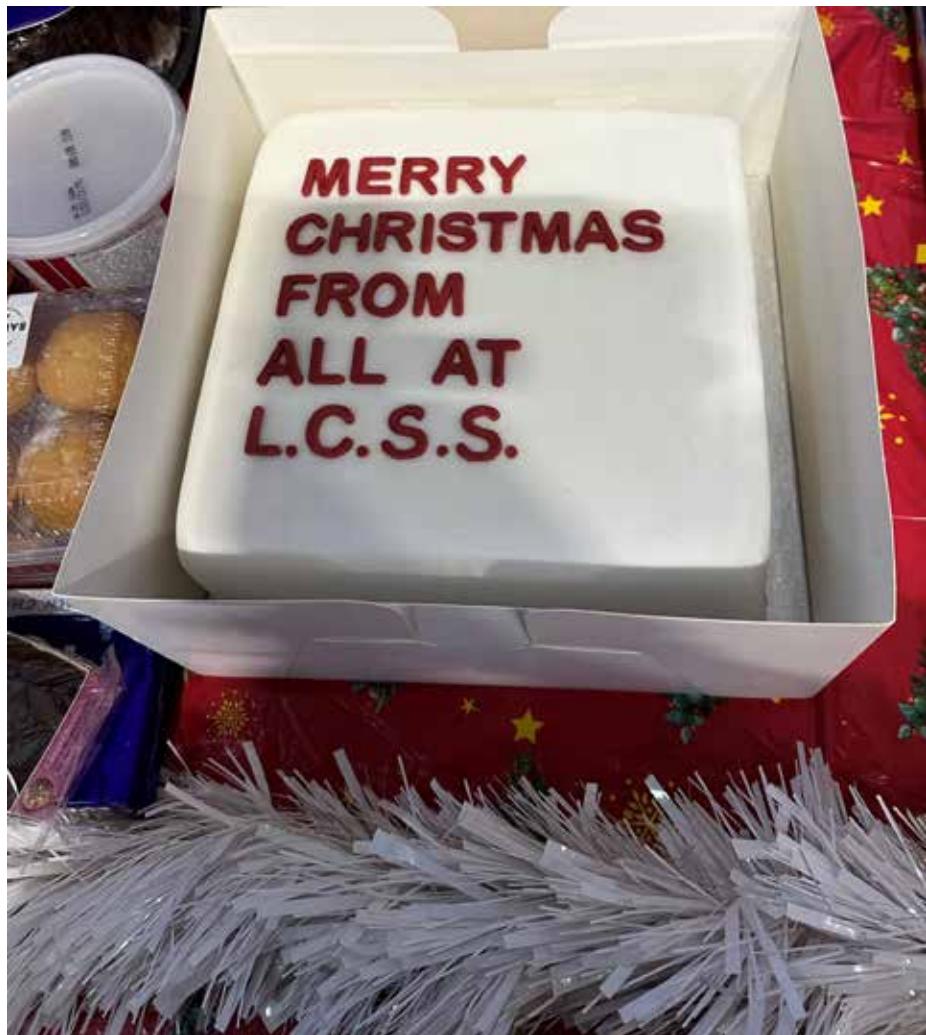

Everybody got a rosette and a bag of dog-treats. The 5 placed, got an extra Christmas-ornament and prize-money.

I would like to ask everybody to continue to do the effort to find inspiration to compete. This is such a unique event that has become a tradition during the lunchbreak.

WISHING YOU AND YOUR COCKERS A
HAPPY, SUCCESSFUL BUT MOST OF
ALL A HEALTHY 2024!

THE BREED STANDARD

A Breed Standard is the guideline which describes the ideal characteristics, temperament and appearance of a breed and ensures that the breed is fit for function. Absolute soundness is essential. Breeders and judges should at all times be careful to avoid obvious conditions or exaggerations which would be detrimental in any way to the health, welfare or soundness of this breed. From time to time certain conditions or exaggerations may be considered to have the potential to affect dogs in some breeds adversely, and judges and breeders are requested to refer to the Kennel Club website for details of any such current issues (www.the-kennel-club.org.uk/services/public/breeds/watch) If a feature or quality is desirable it should be present in the right measure. However if a dog possesses a feature, characteristic or colour described as undesirable or highly undesirable it is strongly recommended that it should not be rewarded in the show ring.

General Appearance

Merry, sturdy, sporting; well balanced; compact; measuring approximately same from withers to ground as from withers to root of tail.

Characteristics

Merry nature with ever-wagging tail shows a typical bustling movement, particularly when following scent, fearless of heavy cover.

Temperament

Gentle and affectionate, yet full of life and exuberance.

Head and Skull

Square muzzle, with distinct stop set midway between tip of nose and occiput. Skull well developed, cleanly chiselled, neither too fine nor too coarse. Cheek bones not prominent. Nose sufficiently wide for acute scenting power.

Eyes

Full, but not prominent. Dark brown or brown, never light, but in the case of liver, liver roan and liver and white, dark hazel to harmonise with coat; with expression of intelligence and gentleness but wide awake, bright and merry; rims tight.

Ears

Lobular, set low on a level with eyes. Fine leathers extending to nose tip. Well clothed with long, straight silky hair.

Mouth

Jaws strong with a perfect, regular and complete scissor bite, i.e. upper teeth closely overlapping lower teeth and set square to the jaws.

Neck

Moderate in length, muscular. Set neatly into fine sloping shoulders. Clean throat.

Forequarters

Shoulders sloping and fine. Legs well boned, straight, sufficiently short for concentrated power. Not too short to interfere with tremendous exertions expected from this grand, sporting dog.

Body

Strong, compact. Chest well developed and brisket deep; neither too wide nor too narrow in front. Ribs well sprung. Loin short, wide with firm, level topline gently sloping downwards to tail from end of loin to set on of tail.

Hindquarters

Wide, well rounded, very muscular. Legs well boned, good bend of stifle, short below hock allowing for plenty of drive.

Feet

Firm, thickly padded, cat-like.

Tail

Set on slightly lower than line of back. Must be merry in action and carried level, never cocked up. Previously customarily docked.

Docked: Never too short to hide, nor too long to interfere with, the incessant merry action when working.

Undocked: Slightly curved, of moderate length, proportionate to size of body giving an overall balanced appearance; ideally not reaching below the hock. Strong at the root and tapering to a fine tip; well feathered in keeping with the coat. Lively in action, carried on a plane not higher than level of back and never so low as to indicate timidity.

Gait/Movement

True through action with great drive covering ground well.

Coat

Flat, silky in texture, never wiry or wavy, not too profuse and never curly. Well feathered forelegs, body and hindlegs above hocks.

Colour

Solid Colours

Black; red; golden; liver (chocolate); black and tan; liver and tan; No white allowed except a small amount on chest.

Particolours Bicolours

Black and white; orange and white; liver & white; lemon and white; All with or without ticking
Tricolours

Black, white and tan; liver, white and tan.

Roans

Blue roan; orange roan; lemon roan; liver roan; blue roan and tan; liver roan and tan.

Any colour or marking other than the above is undesirable.

Size

Height approximately: dogs: 39-41 cms (15 1/2-16 ins); bitches: 38-39 cms (15-15 1/2 ins).

Weight approximately: 13-14.5 kgs (28-32 lbs).

Faults

Any departure from the foregoing points should be considered a fault and the seriousness with which the fault should be regarded should be in exact proportion to its degree and its effect upon the health and welfare of the dog, and on the dog's ability to perform its traditional work.

Note

Male animals should have two apparently normal testicles fully descended into the scrotum.

THE JUDGE

*I want to be a dog show judge, I want my name in lights
I started at the bottom, but I want to reach the heights.
I've done all the assessments, I've travelled near and far
I've covered every county, in my trusty little car.*

*I've befriended all the secretaries, I've got to know who's who
I know all the committees, and just what's the thing to do.*

*And now I've got my first big show, the dogs are walking in
I have to really concentrate, and decide who I should bin.*

*That second dog is very smart, and moving really well
But I don't know him from Adam, so he can go as well.*

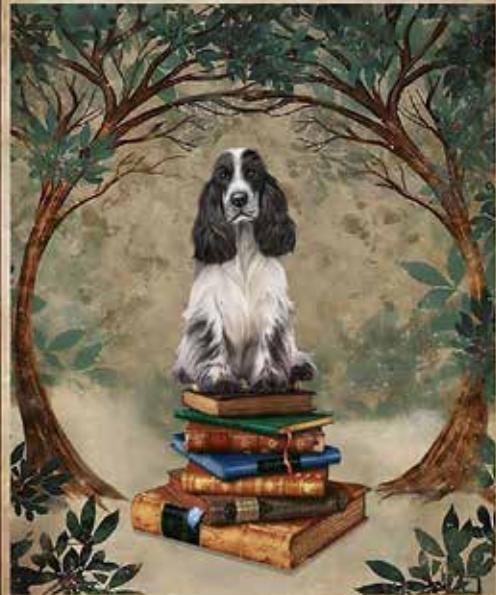

*There's Mary standing at the front, her dog is past his peak
But I think I'll give her Best in Breed, she's judging us next week.*

*Phyllis should retire that dog, his front is really bad
But I want to use her stud dog, so best not get her mad.*

*The dog that I put second, his owners got a cheek
I know that its sedated, it bit the judge last week.*

*Well that's the judging over, I think I did it well
Now, who owes me a favour? Only time will tell!*

A WOMAN CANNOT SURVIVE
ON BOOKS ALONE

SHE ALSO NEEDS A COCKER SPANIEL

Paw prints on your heart

She came into your heart one day,
So beautiful and smart,
A dear and sweet companion,
You loved her from the start.

And though you knew the time would come,
When you would have to part,
She'll never be forgotten,
She left paw prints on your heart.

CHALKHILL PICKPOCKET

Tigger

20th February 2009 – 29th September 2023

Tigger achieved his Gold Good Citizens and adored agility. His weaves were legendary.

He travelled widely in UK, France and Switzerland and his pet passport was full. His favourite holidays were annual visits to the Norfolk coast with other members of his Chalkhill family. Never less than five cocker spaniels.

He developed a talent for shameless raids on the kitchens of some of the best hotels in Europe!

Chalkhill Pickpocket was aptly named, adept at removing handkerchiefs (and the occasional bank note) from unsuspecting pockets.
He is sorely missed and will always be in our hearts.

CLARAMAND

What a fabulous time I have had during 2023, with my boys and girls doing so well in the ring. I also enjoyed a very special day when I judged the Bitches at

The Cocker Spaniel Club. Then almost at the end of the year my lovely orange roan lad Claramand Cracker [Clark] after winning so many classes was awarded the CC at 2 consecutive shows, with a BIS and RBIS, what a way to end the year. I am certainly looking forward to getting out and about again this year, our first show being Crufts.

Having bred and shown every colour of cocker over the years I thought I would share just a few random photo's taken mostly at shows over the last 40 + years. Proving no matter what the colour, a good dog is a good dog and it is possible to breed to "Type" no matter what colour.

She loved to show and we achieved so many dreams together with the most memorable being my first ever crufts qualifier with 1st veteran bitch at Blackpool championship show 2015. Kiara was the best cocker ever being by my side through the best and worst times in my life. # We're giving up this showing lark

by Julia Mills
(Landamere Boxers)

We're giving up this showing lark,
It's such a waste of time.
The judge was picking all his friends -
The best dog there was mine!

I stood there holding head and tail
And throwing bits of liver.
It's not my fault he roached his back -
The cold had made him shiver.

The ground was rough, the ring was small.
The judge was blind, and that's not all ...
Someone near me threw a ball
So my dog stretched and looked too tall.

We'll buy the DOG WORLD one more time
To read our last report,
And then we'll end this showing lark -
'cos it really isn't sport.

We'll decorate, we'll paint the gate,
We'll bake some cakes for the local fete,
We'll lay in bed and get up late,
We'll holiday ... we'll emigrate!

DOG WORLD arrives, let's have a look,
What does she have to say?
"Good quarters, head and tailset,
The best mover of the day!"

Let's see what shows are coming up,
Not that we'll be there.
Who's judging next? Oh, Jessie Brown,
Now she was really fair.

She liked our bitch, she put her up,
We won rosettes and a silver cup,
It's a long time since we rang her up,
We could see what she thinks of our new pup.

And that man that always calls you "Dear"
And looks at you with a lecherous leer,
Well he's judging not so far from here -
You could show the dogs ... in your low-cut gear!

I wasn't going to show again,
But I don't mind if it's fair;
And when I spoke to Jess she said
She hoped that we'd be there.

Well Jessie did us well again,
It's a good job that we went,
But a fair and honest judge like that ...
Some woman called her "bent"!

The old boy did us very well,
I saw your ample bosom swell,
Your skimpy blouse coped very well -
I think he liked the dog as well!

I don't mind when you know
You stand as good a chance as any -
And we know we do at our next show,
'cos the judge is Auntie Jenny!

The moral of the story - to put it to an end
Is pick your judges carefully, if possible a friend!
