THE KENNEL CLUB CODE OF ETHICS

All breeders who register their puppies, and new owners who register ownership of their dogs with the Kennel Club, accept the jurisdiction of the Kennel Club and undertake to abide by its general Code of Ethics.

Breeders/Owners:

1. Will properly house, feed, water and exercise all dogs under their care and arrange for appropriate veterinary attention if and when required.
2. Will agree without reservation that any veterinary surgeon performing an operation on any of their dogs which alters the natural conformation of the animal, or who carries out a caesarean section on a bitch, may report such operation to the Kennel Club.
3. Will agree that no healthy puppy will be culled. Puppies which may not conform to the Breed Standard should be placed in suitable homes.
4. Will abide by all aspects of the Animal Welfare Act.
5. Will not create demand for, nor supply, puppies that have been docked illegally.
6. Will agree not to breed from a dog or bitch which could be in any way harmful to the dog or to the breed.
7. Will not allow any of their dogs to roam at large or to cause a nuisance to neighbours or those carrying out official duties.
8. Will ensure that their dogs wear properly tagged collars and will be kept leashed or under effective control when away from home.
9. Will clean up after their dogs in public places or anywhere their dogs are being exhibited.
10. Will only sell dogs where there is a reasonable expectation of a happy and healthy life and will help with the re-homing of a dog if the initial circumstances change.
11. Will supply written details of all dietary requirements and give guidance concerning responsible ownership when placing dogs in a new home.
12. Will ensure that all relevant Kennel Club documents are provided to the new owner when selling or transferring a dog, and will agree, in writing, to forward any relevant documents at the earliest opportunity, if not immediately available.
13. Will not sell any dog to commercial dog wholesalers, retail pet dealers or directly or indirectly allow dogs to be given as a prize or donation in a competition of any kind. Will not sell by sale or auction Kennel Club registration certificates as stand alone items (not accompanying a dog).
14. Will not knowingly misrepresent the characteristics of the breed nor falsely advertise dogs nor mislead any person regarding the health or quality of a dog.
15. Members will, when breeding dogs, adopt as a minimum standard the principles, requirements and recommendations as embodies in the Kennel Club's Assured Breeder Scheme. It is strongly recommended that members who breed should apply to join the scheme.

Breach of these provisions may result in expulsion from club membership, and/or disciplinary action by the Kennel Club and/or reporting to the relevant authorities for legal action, as appropriate.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT FOR AGM 2017

How does a year in the dog showing world go so quickly it only seems five minutes ago when I reported on last year.

Welcome to all the Officers, Committee and members of The London Cocker Spaniel Society. This year has seen entries down slightly in Open and Championship Shows but we still managed to put the shows on with the hard work of the Hon Secretary and Show Secretary.

I would like to thank the Officers and Committee for all the time and effort they put in to arranging the judges, stewards, the meals and refreshments that are laid on at the three shows. Thanks also go out to all members and visitors attending the shows because without their support the shows would not continue.

Thanks go to Les, Geoffrey, and Liz for their time that they give to run the trade stands at Crufts, as this is a very long and tiring day.

The two Open shows were well attended. The Championship Show was held in December which was well supported by members and it is always nice to see the overseas members supporting the show and catching up with friends. A thank you goes to the members for supporting the buffet with the food donations to make this a great occasion. The entertainment during the lunch break was well supported with members parading in their Christmas hats judged by Santa Claus and his helper elf for stewarding, I cannot wait to hear what next year will bring.

Like all dog clubs finding new Committee members is hard but if you feel you could give your time to join a committee, you would be welcome to apply.

HON GENERAL SECRETARY AND SHOW SECRETARY's REPORT, JULY 2017

Yet another year has sped by, during which we have lost friends and colleagues, most particularly Mrs Jennifer Lloyd-Carey. As is widely known Jennifer and her family spent a life time in dogs. Her father breeding and showing a number of Best in Show Winners at Crufts. Jennifer has to be admired for sticking to the type and temperament she liked, deciding not to be influenced by fashions as they came and went. She was Vice-President of our Society, having served as a Committee member and Chairman for many years. We will miss her extensive knowledge and expertise that she brought to our meetings. Our condolences go to her husband, Alan, and her daughters Paula and Rachel.

Both of us have continued to work together to promote the good of the Society and during the current financial climate have worked extremely hard to maintain the entries at our three shows during the year. Our thanks go to our Members, the Committee and Officers for their continued support.

Our Championship Show was held in December at Woking Leisure Centre. Our shared buffet lunch was once again enjoyed by our exhibitors. This year we held a Christmas Hat Competition during the lunch break with prizes. Once again this was judged by Father Christmas (Derek Shapland) who made a special early trip from Lapland for the event. This year he was accompanied by his hard-working Elf Helper (Colin Flowers. Samantha Gladman (Chativore) was the overall winner. Thanks to Tracy Morgan and Sue Berndes for organising the Grand Raffle; the proceeds of which were shared with Network for Animals.

Currently our Open Shows are held at New Haw Community Centre but hire costs are increasing considerably and although this venue is booked for 2018 we need to keep the situation under review.

Mrs Elizabeth Smith, the Centre Manager has retired and we thank her for all her help and support over the years.

The Calendar was well received and sold well. Our particular thanks to Tracy Morgan for her work on the photography.

The Yearbook took a great deal of time to produce. It is becoming increasingly hard to secure advertisements for the book and the success and existence of the Yearbook depends heavily on Member's contributions. Thank you to Members and Non-Members who contributed advertisements.

Special thanks go to our Editor, Carley Schooling for all her work

Liz Devine has worked with Sue Warrington on the newsletter. Liz does an impressive job as our Membership Administrator.

Thank you again to all who have contributed to the success of all our events, members, Committee and Officers. Without your valued support London Cocker could not flourish.

Sue Warrington (Hon Gen Sec)
John Hartnett (Show Sec)

TREASURER'S REPORT FOR AGM YEAR ENDING 2016

Last year was a year we will always remember.

We received a substantial legacy from a former member, which as far as I can ascertain is unequalled by any other breed society.

Mr David Collingwood a widower, who with his late wife Brenda were long term members of the Society, who previously lived in Middlesex, before moving to Shrewbury.

While dealing with the estate we learnt that Mr Collingwood had a sister living in Kent.

After obtaining her details from the solicitor we arranged to visit her. During our visit Mrs Baker told us just how different the situation could have been. We asked for details, her reply was very moving. Mrs Baker had a son of whom Mr Collingwood thought very highly, who would under normal circumstances have inherited his estate. One evening her son was contacted by one of his friend's asking him if he wanted to go out as a member of their group was unwell. Mrs Baker's son agreed.

During the evening their vehicle was involved in a very serious accident, in which her son tragically died.

During the visit it became clear that Mrs Baker had no wish to make a claim on her late brother's estate.

The estate proceeds with interest were £279,140.99.

We have formed a sub- committee to discuss this very generous legacy, and will have to take advice, both legal and financial before any decisions are made.

Consistent with previous years I have declined to accept my honorarium payment.

Les Harris.
Honorary Treasurer.

Dogs: Insanely happy to see you EVERY. SINGLE. TIME.

AGM MEMBERSHIP REPORT FOR 2017

Many thanks are given to all the members who paid their membership on time. This made a great difference to the money collected at Crufts and the people helping could concentrate on trying to attract new members and selling merchandise.

Crufts new members were down on the previous year but it was noticed by the committee and helpers that fewer overseas people were about. The UK memberships has had a steady flow of new members which are always very welcome but in the past year we have had many deaths so the overall figures are about the same.

Our membership to date for 2017 is:

UK members

Single = 131
(including 5 life members)

Joint = 104

THE BREED STANDARD

A Breed Standard is the guideline which describes the ideal characteristics, temperament and appearance of a breed and ensures that the breed is fit for function. Absolute soundness is essential. Breeders and judges should at all times be careful to avoid obvious conditions or exaggerations which would be detrimental in any way to the health, welfare or soundness of this breed. From time to time certain conditions or exaggerations may be considered to have the potential to affect dogs in some breeds adversely, and judges and breeders are requested to refer to the Kennel Club website for details of any such current issues (www.the-kennel-club.org.uk/services/public/breeds/watch) If a feature or quality is desirable it should be present in the right measure. However if a dog possesses a feature, characteristic or colour described as undesirable or highly undesirable it is strongly recommended that it should not be rewarded in the show ring.

General Appearance

Merry, sturdy, sporting; well balanced; compact; measuring approximately same from withers to ground as from withers to root of tail.

Characteristics

Merry nature with ever-wagging tail shows a typical bustling movement, particularly when following scent, fearless of heavy cover.

Temperament

Gentle and affectionate, yet full of life and exuberance.

Head and Skull

Square muzzle, with distinct stop set midway between tip of nose and occiput. Skull well developed, cleanly chiselled, neither too fine nor too coarse. Cheek bones not prominent. Nose sufficiently wide for acute scenting power.

Eyes

Full, but not prominent. Dark brown or brown, never light, but in the case of liver, liver roan and liver and white, dark hazel to harmonise with coat; with expression of intelligence and gentleness but wide awake, bright and merry; rims tight.

Ears

Lobular, set low on a level with eyes. Fine leathers extending to nose tip. Well clothed with long, straight silky hair.

Mouth

Jaws strong with a perfect, regular and complete scissor bite, i.e. upper teeth closely overlapping lower teeth and set square to the jaws.

Neck

Moderate in length, muscular. Set neatly into fine sloping shoulders. Clean throat.

Forequarters

Shoulders sloping and fine. Legs well boned, straight, sufficiently short for concentrated power. Not too short to interfere with tremendous exertions expected from this grand, sporting dog.

Body

Strong, compact. Chest well developed and brisket deep; neither too wide nor too narrow in front. Ribs well sprung. Loin short, wide with firm, level topline gently sloping downwards to tail from end of loin to set on of tail.

Hindquarters

Wide, well rounded, very muscular. Legs well boned, good bend of stifle, short below hock allowing for plenty of drive.

Feet

Firm, thickly padded, cat-like.

Tail

Set on slightly lower than line of back. Must be merry in action and carried level, never cocked up. Previously customarily docked.

Docked: Never too short to hide, nor too long to interfere with, the incessant merry action when working.

Undocked: Slightly curved, of moderate length, proportionate to size of body giving an overall balanced appearance; ideally not reaching below the hock. Strong at the root and tapering to a fine tip; well feathered in keeping with the coat. Lively in action, carried on a plane not higher than level of back and never so low as to indicate timidity.

Gait/Movement

True through action with great drive covering ground well.

Coat

Flat, silky in texture, never wiry or wavy, not too profuse and never curly. Well feathered forelegs, body and hindlegs above hocks.

Colour

Solid Colours

Black; red; golden; liver (chocolate); black and tan; liver and tan; No white allowed except a small amount on chest.

Particolours Bicolours

Black and white; orange and white; liver & white; lemon and white; All with or without ticking

Tricolours

Black, white and tan; liver, white and tan.

Roans

Blue roan; orange roan; lemon roan; liver roan; blue roan and tan; liver roan and tan.

Any colour or marking other than the above is undesirable.

Size

Height approximately: dogs: 39-41 cms (15 1/2-16 ins); bitches: 38-39 cms (15-15 1/2 ins).

Weight approximately: 13-14.5 kgs (28-32 lbs).

Faults

Any departure from the foregoing points should be considered a fault and the seriousness with which the fault should be regarded should be in exact proportion to its degree and its effect upon the health and welfare of the dog, and on the dog's ability to perform its traditional work.

Note

Male animals should have two apparently normal testicles fully descended into the scrotum.

You no longer greet me,
As I walk through the door.
You're not there to make me smile,
To make me laugh anymore.
Life seems quiet without you,
You were far more than a pet.
You were a family member, a friend,
...a loving soul I'll never forget.

It will take time to heal-
For the silence to go away.
I still listen for you,
And miss you every day.
You were such a great companion,
Constant, loyal and true.
My heart will always wear,
the pawprints left by you.©

THE JUDGE

*I want to be a dog show judge, I want my name in lights
I started at the bottom, but I want to reach the heights.
I've done all the assessments, I've travelled near and far
I've covered every county, in my trusty little car.*

*I've befriended all the secretaries, I've got to know who's who
I know all the committees, and just what's the thing to do.*

*And now I've got my first big show, the dogs are walking in
I have to really concentrate, and decide who I should bin.*

*That second dog is very smart, and moving really well
But I don't know him from Adam, so he can go as well.*

*There's Mary standing at the front, her dog is past his peak
But I think I'll give her Best in Breed, she's judging us next week.*

*Phyllis should retire that dog, his front is really bad
But I want to use her stud dog, so best not get her mad.*

*The dog that I put second, his owners got a cheek
I know that its sedated, it bit the judge last week.*

*Well that's the judging over, I think I did it well
Now, who owes me a favour? Only time will tell!*

THE COCKER SPANIEL BREED COUNCIL CRITERIA FOR JUDGING LISTS

As at the end of September 2015

(Taken from the Breed Council website with permission)

The Council will form & maintain FIVE Lists of Judges. These shall be compiled anew on an annual basis.

ROLL OF HONOUR

The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council (i.e. THE MEMBER CLUBS) wishes to show appreciation of the Services rendered to the Breed over many years by The Championship Show Judges on this list.

Best wishes for the future are extended to those who may have retired.

A1 LIST

This list contains the names of those persons who have previously been approved by The Kennel Club to award CCs in the breed & have completed their first appointment. They also have the support of the Cocker Spaniel Breed Council. (K.C. Policy)

A2 LIST

This list contains the names of persons who fulfil all requirements of the "A3" List & who have been assessed in accordance with Kennel Club requirements & accepted by The Kennel Club for inclusion on an "A2" List & have the support of The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council. (K.C. Policy)

A3 LIST

This list contains the names of judges of the Breed who satisfy the criteria as determined by The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council, who have the confidence of Member Clubs and are considered suitably qualified to judge the Breed at Championship Show level.

B LIST

This list contains the names of judges of the Breed who have satisfied the B List criteria as determined by The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council and are considered suitably qualified to judge the Cocker Spaniel at Championship Shows without CC's on offer, at Breed Club Open Shows and at General Open Shows exceeding 5 classes of the Breed.

C LIST

For aspirant judges who have shown an interest in the breed by attending seminars conducted by The Kennel Club and a Breed Specific Seminar and have the support of The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council. This list will normally include persons who have judged the breed at general Limited and Open Shows (Band E- maximum of 5 classes permitted) on at least two occasions but do not yet qualify for the 'B' List of Judges.

A3 LIST

Applicants should note that when considering applications for the Breed Council "A" Lists, no more than 5 classes will be accepted from a single appointment (with the number of dogs judged reduced pro rata ie i.e.

10 classes, 30 dogs judged reduced to 5 classes 15 dogs judged) UNLESS the applicant is named (at the time of appointment) on the B List of The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council or of The Cocker Spaniel Club.

NB: Requirement for all First time CC appointment applications received at the Kennel Club after 1st January 2011. Each applicant must have attended an OPEN COCKER SPANIEL STAKES.

Attendees must arrange in advance with the relevant Field Trial Secretary that they can attend and observe (not all Secretaries or Landowners will want member of the public at their events). Attendees must stay for the day and obtain a marked card (catalogue in our terms) signed by the Field Trial Secretary. The marked card is to be sent to the Kennel Club with the completed application. It is strongly suggested that a copy of the card is taken and retained. Some trials will allow attendees to stand with the judge(s) and some will not; it is not essential. Observation of a Cocker working is the object of the exercise.

In memory of Phyllis Wise

The Cocker Spaniel world has lost one of its great breeders with the death of Phyllis Wise, Breeder of Astrawin cockers, on 21st August, writes Frank Kane.

Phyllis bought her first Cocker, a well bred red bitch in 1948, and supported by her husband Stan, decided to start showing her. In the 1950's the breed was very strong in Phyllis' area there were some of the top kennels such as the of Wares, Treetops, Broomleaf, Colinwood, Sixshot, Peasemores and others and it was an achievement to win a card at an open show.

In her first litter Phyllis bred the first Astrawin who in turn produced the bitch who put the kennel on the map. Astrawin Aphrodite went to the Cocker Club in 1960 and with over 300 entries won the challenge certificate under gundog authority Frank Warner Hill and with agreement of co judge Joe Braddon she went Best in Show. Her title came soon afterwards and at Crufts in 1961, Aphrodite won Best of Breed under Gwen Broadley and in the group the trophy for best spaniel.

That was the start of a string of champions including the red dogs April Fire, Authentic, who also won Best in Show at the Cocker Club in 1971, the beautiful black bitch Amusing and my personal favourite Airsprite. The last from the Kennel to win its title in the UK was the red bitch Au Reservoir in the 1990's.

The Astrawin type was easily recognisable for its beautiful heads and cockery bodies, things, which Phyllis saw as essentials and the stock was in great demand overseas. In the 1970's Phyllis and Stan had two youngsters from Finland stay: Arja Koskelo and Anja Pummala. Later they had dogs from Astrawin which were very influential in the breed in Scandinavia.

Arja had Nordic Ch Advisor and Anja had Int Ch Apollo, dog of the year in Finland in 1975. There were others too like Adventurer, Best in Show at the prestigious Copenhagen international, Action Man and others which provided foundation stock for breeders. In the USA the black and tan dog Applejack had a great career. Phyllis was always pleased to see her stock doing well for others and she was especially proud when her two Finnish protegees Arja and Anja judged the breed at Crufts together and she was there to see them. Phyllis first awarded CC's in the 1960's awarding her first certificate to the great black and white dog, Wells Fargo of Weirdene.

In memory of

Phyllis Wise

She later judged the breed at Crufts and at the Cocker Club and many countries overseas. She served on several breed club committees and for many years hosted a puppy walk and garden party in her beautiful garden at Poyle Cottage.

When she retired from breeding and showing., Phyllis maintained her keen interest, co-writing a book with me , and taking on the breed notes in 'Dog World' When her last homebred cocker died she acquired a retired Lujesa bitch which carried her bloodline and Jade became a very pampered cocker.

Outside her canine interests Phyllis had led a very varied life. She had been an ambulance driver in London during the Second World War. She loved fast cars, especially her Volvo Sports, and well into her eighties drove her motor home to shows, especially the Cocker Club in Malvern with her Romanian friend who visited yearly. Phyllis was a wonderful host to cocker enthusiasts from many countries and had a great sense of humour.

Evenings at Poyle Cottage with Michael Boothroyd and Jimmy Cudworth were always hilarious. Phyllis was very interested in politics and current affairs, especially 'Question Time' with David Dimbleby and I was amused one night to hear the viewers question from Phyllis Wise of Tongham on the deflation of the pound.

She admired the leadership of Margaret Thatcher and was delighted when their paths crossed at the Ritz hotel where Phyllis had been invited to afternoon tea. Seeing Mrs Thatcher and her detective in the lobby Phyllis went up and introduced herself and had a long chat. It was Phyllis' many interests which kept her so vital and interested and it was a sad time when physical frailty limited her mobility and eventually more frequent hospitalisation.

Phyllis loved her Elizabethan cottage and garden and to have to leave it and enter a nursing home was very hard, so the last two years have not been easy. On my visits she would still be able to talk of cockers and cocker people but she was tired. However, despite the difficulties of her last years she always counted herself blessed with the pleasure she had enjoyed from her dogs and her loyal caring friends in her life.

A life well lived and loved. A great spirit gone. Rest in peace Phyllis.

The funeral will take place at Aldershot Crematorium on Friday 8th September, 2017 at 1.30pm

Tribute to Jennifer Lloyd Carey

Jennifer was born at Swakeleys Farmhouse, Ickenham, Middlesex, in September 1937, the daughter of H.S. Lloyd – breeder of the “of Ware” Cocker Spaniels. She thus grew up surrounded by dogs and, although she enjoyed country pursuits such as pony riding, and drove a pony and trap, the Spaniels were always the main interest. Indeed, at her funeral in June, an old school-friend recalled Jennifer organising pretend dog shows, with five young girls each being allocated several dogs – including winners like Tracey Witch of Ware – to groom and practise, everything done properly in the “Lloyd” way. Entry forms were filled in with correct names and breeding details, there were hand-written catalogues and prize cards and the children took turns to handle and judge. With agility classes too, it was good holiday fun and wonderful training for the dogs.

Jennifer’s grandfather, Richard Lloyd, had established a kennels in Ware in Hertfordshire in 1875, breeding spaniels which were soon to be designated Cockers. He began the family’s long association with Crufts by winning a First Prize at its first show in 1891, and in time his son, H.S. Lloyd, took over the management of the “of Ware” kennels and moved to Ickenham. During the Second World War the family left the farmhouse for a year or so whilst the kennels were used by the War Dogs Training School, work for which Jennifer’s father was awarded an MBE. Later still, the kennels moved to Maple Cross, Herts, and meanwhile Mr Lloyd had inherited the Falconers strain from Mrs Jamieson Higgens.

After school and college, Jennifer worked for several years in London as secretary to the Editor of The Field. However, she soon assumed full responsibility for the dogs and, under the banner of “Top breeders recommend it” was seen on television with a can of Pedigree Chum and declaring “My grandfather started the Kennel, my father made it famous and I’m carrying on from him!”

Whilst Jennifer’s father had won Best in Show at Crufts a record 6 times, Jennifer eventually distinguished herself by attending every Crufts show since 1948 when it resumed after the War – usually as an exhibitor but three times as a judge. She was acclaimed by the Kennel Club in 2011 as being the longest-running Crufts competitor, an achievement which gave rise to reports in the press including The Mail Online, a Genes Reunited feature and a televised interview with Clare Balding! But Jennifer was not there this year – a sad indication of her failing health.

In 2004 the Kennel Club staged an exhibition of Crufts Memorabilia. One whole wall of the Gallery was assigned to paintings and objects provided by Jennifer, and she was there to meet Princess Anne at the event’s opening. Jennifer’s association with the Kennel Club began with the Ladies Branch in 1958, and she was delighted to receive Honorary Life Membership nineteen years ago.

Tribute to Jennifer Lloyd Carey

Jennifer had been a member of the London Cocker Spaniel Society since the days of “Doc” Rickards and Kay Baldwin, and remained a supporter for the rest of her life.

She was co-opted to the committee twenty years ago, was made Acting Chairman after the AGM in 2000 and was then Chairman for eight eventful years. She became a Life Member in 2011, Vice-President a year later and then had the honour of judging Dogs at the 2012 Championship Show.

Jennifer married Alan fifty-two years ago. They moved to Iver, Bucks, in 1966 and had two children, Paula and Rachel. Iver became the home of the “of Wares” and “Falconers” until the present day. The showing and breeding of her beloved Cockers was augmented by Rachel’s pet Cavalier, and an Irish Water Spaniel from which was bred Brittas William of Ware – a notable stud at the time.

Invitations to judge took Jennifer around the world, with visits to such places as Australia, New Zealand, Brazil and numerous countries in Europe, often with Alan going along for company. Jennifer was always keen to see and assess the Cocker abroad, and the excursions were normally extended not just for sightseeing but to spend some time with the local dog-lovers. She was especially pleased to meet overseas members of London Cocker.

Jennifer loved writing about dogs, and her book “Cocker Spaniels – An Owner’s Companion” is based on a lifetime of experience and acquired knowledge. She was a long-time contributor to Our Dogs, and as a breed correspondent she consistently promoted the activities of the clubs, particularly those of the LCSS. Although she had ceased to report on a regular basis, her last breed notes were written from a hospital bed just days before her death from bronchiectasis. They appeared at the end of that week and, yes, they were about London Cocker.

At the funeral the Vicar described Jennifer as a private person who was always happier talking about her dogs rather than about herself. He said that she was a very humble, discreet, cautious, logical and wise person with a great deal of common sense. She took canine matters very seriously and liked everything to be done properly. She had a keen eye for detail, especially when it came to the written word, and this was evident from her own writing and by the meticulous way that she had proof-read the local Parish Magazine when Alan was its editor.

The Vicar concluded that she was a very special lady, dearly loved and admired by many, and who would be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Charitable donations in Jennifer’s memory amounted to over £1,000 and have been shared between Hearing Dogs for Deaf People and the Iver Parish Church. Alan, Paula and Rachel thank everyone for this generosity, and for the kind messages of condolence following their loss.

ARTICLE BY: ROSE LLOYD - RE-HOMING

We all know just how important it is to find the very best homes for the puppies some of us choose to breed.

It can also be one of the hardest tasks, as I recently discovered when I was faced with having to rehome one of our puppies – at the grand old age of two.

When I say I “had to”, I am of course talking about my moral duty rather than any actual legal responsibility, but I believe having a moral compass is vital as a breeder. I had told all our new owners that if they ever found they could no longer keep their dog, they must bring it back to me – at any age.

Of course, I never really expected it to happen – or for it to be so heart-breaking when it did.

My cocker spaniel Domino had two litters, both by stud dogs owned by the fabulous Sue Warrington, who was one of my main advisers regarding dealing with would-be puppy buyers. When she passed on the phone number of a potential owner, she always added: “Make sure you really grill them!”

It was wise advice, but I now know you can’t always get it right when assessing would-be buyers, no matter how careful you are.

For an inexperienced second-time breeder, dealing with buyers was a challenge. I lost track of the daft questions you get asked and the people who are incredibly keen one day and buying a kitten instead the next. This was around the time that William and Kate’s working cocker got media attention and I was overwhelmed with phone calls from people wanting a working dog (ours are show-type). They all shared a common trait – they were completely foggy about the differences between the two types of cocker and had no idea how much extra work a working cocker might be!

For those who really did want a show cocker, I developed a routine: I would vet them on the phone, then insist they visited in person, bringing the whole family, as Sue had advised. The vast majority of our new owners gave their dogs wonderful homes and kept in touch, with photos and news, in the months to come.

One family worried me though. They had been first on the waiting list for a bitch, but when they visited, something didn’t feel quite right - but I wasn’t able to put my finger on it. They said all the right things, seemed serious about the idea of getting a dog and were relaxed around the puppies.

As I couldn’t quite work out what was worrying me after a long interview, I pushed my concerns to one side. I was probably imagining things. And in another month’s time, they left with their new pet, seemingly delighted with her. All seemed fine - although I felt more like a mum with an empty nest than Domino ever did!

Things also seemed to be going swimmingly once they got home. But my worries about this bitch, who I will call “B”, really started when I hosted a one-year birthday party for the litter and their owners. Six puppies and their families came and, with the addition of my two dogs, I have never seen such chaos in one house. Supposedly well-trained young dogs were stealing food off the kitchen counter and sandwiches off their owners’ plates; we’d walked through the woods in January and the dogs were wet and filthy and all over my chairs. But it was enormous fun for all.

However, B just didn’t seem right. She was absolutely tiny, for a start, much smaller than the other bitches from the litter. She also seemed a bit cowed and without spirit, which isn’t something you see much in cockers. While we were out walking, I heard her male owner telling her off for “not playing like the other dogs”.

Alarm bells were ringing and I resolved to get in touch with the woman soon after. At this point, though, she said all was well. Her dog had just been a bit overwhelmed.

There was no problem.

It wasn't until eight months later that I got the bad news. The family wanted to rehome the bitch as "they could not keep her anymore". They wondered if I knew anyone looking for an older cocker. I told them to bring her back to me immediately and after sleeping on it for a few days, that's what they did.

The woman turned up with a car full of food, puppy toys and B. It was clear that she was attached to B, but she was reticent about why they needed to rehome her. In the end, though, she told me: her husband didn't like the dog. He hadn't been ready to have a pet but had followed his wife's lead. Now he no longer wanted her.

I must admit to feeling angry with the family – B was their responsibility and they were giving her up for a reason that seemed trivial; after all, nobody had lost their job or their home. Yet I couldn't really be angry – what good would that do? And it was my fault for not having spotted that the man was ambivalent in the first place.

As B's owners left, leaving her with us, she sat watching their departing figures through the window and I felt tears starting to prick my eyes. What must it feel like to her, to be brought back here and abandoned by the family she had grown to love over the last 20 months? But as soon as she stopped searching for her owners, she seemed to recognise her place of birth, her mother and, best of all, her big sister Valentine. The two orange roan girls started playing vigorously together as they had when B was a puppy. Domino watched, aloof but tolerant. As long as this newcomer didn't come too close, she was fine.

We quickly slipped into domestic harmony – at least for the first two weeks. B loved walks, always got filthy in the woods and seemed to have settled down very quickly. I had never intended to have three dogs, but this seemed easy.

However, the problems started once B had been with us for a fortnight. She started to vie for the position of Top Dog in the household, wanting the coveted place of being closest to me.

And predictably, that was the point at which my own two dogs started getting upset with the new situation. As B tried to squirm her way to the front of the cuddling queue, my two dogs got jealous.

The following week was marred by snarls from Domino and Valentine – they hadn't signed up for this. Their own balance of power had been carefully developed and is rarely perturbed. But the newcomer was putting it in jeopardy.

We couldn't carry on like this; I would need to find another new home for B.

But the last thing I wanted to do was to let B go to another home that wouldn't work for her. Wherever she went, it would need to be absolutely right this time. Otherwise, we would just have to make it work at home with us. And I knew I would make it work, what choice would I have?

Once again, it was Sue who came to our rescue. She knew a family who wanted an older dog rather than a puppy, and introduced them to me. They seemed absolutely wonderful.

But the evening they came to pick her up was one of my most difficult as a breeder. I was in floods of tears while saying farewell to B. I kept thinking about how this must feel to her. Once more, she was being taken from a place of safety into the unknown. And what if I had got it wrong again? The thought was unbearable.

So I'm really happy to say that six months on, B seems to be absolutely flourishing in her new home. I get regular pictures of a happy cocker, back in the woods, covered in mud, as happy cockers often are. She is Top Dog by default, being the only dog in her new home, with four adults to lavish her with love. It would seem that she is settled and contented. We will shortly be meeting them all for a Spring walk and I will be able to see how B is, up close and personal. It might sound surprising, but I also kept B's old owner informed about her new life. I certainly didn't put them directly in touch with her new family – but I came to feel sorry for the woman, caught, as she was, between a rock and a hard place.

I would not have made the same decision she did, but I do understand she felt she had no choice. And giving up a dog, as I have come to learn all too well, is extremely tough on those of us who love our animals.

As I write, I am waiting to find out if Valentine is pregnant with her first litter. Wish me luck! And if she is, heaven help those prospective buyers, they will not know what has hit them.

“Grilling” will be too tame a word to describe the interviews next time round! For I know, in my heart, I don’t ever want to have to take a dog back again. I have to get it right next time.

COCKERBYE

Aged: 9 years 7 months

Eve, 'Cockerbye Special Delivery' deserves a page to herself for all she has been through this year! Her stoicism and bravery have been outstanding, the pain she endured in the summer was unbearable to see, having not been diagnosed for 5 weeks she was then referred to a Specialist who discovered she had a blown disc in her neck and she was not far off from becoming paralysed. Surgery, hospitalisation and loving care have made Eve complete again, our very grateful thank go to Dick White Referrals and the Specialist Neurologist and his team who's 'saved' her. Eve's year had started badly losing Jasmine her Cockerbye friend, then having to endure ear surgery and stomach surgery, her recoveries are remarkable and we look forward to a 2018 positively.

Shanaz Zoomer

Half Brother to SH CH Shanaz Sporran, sharing the same mother Sh Ch & IR Sh Ch Shanaz Peever. Outgoing friendly and exuberant. A joy to own. He delighted me this year by having a lovely 3rd at CRUFTS in very good company.

He is quite the naughtiest and funniest Cocker I have had the privilege to own!

Scomar Interceptor

DOB: 13th November 2008

Sire: Weiredene Woodpecker Dam: Tvaeraa Snowdrop at Scomar

Here is Scomar Interceptor (Lewis) pictured (far right) with his cousin Tvaeraa Kings Ransom (Vidor) and his maternal grandmother Craigleith Over the Rainbow (Fallon)

Three lovely natured dogs, so loyal and happy to please.

Sadly, Fallon (Owned by Helen Christie - Tvaeraa) is no longer with us and she is sorely missed.

However, Lewis is still being shown although now in the veteran classes and he is still eager to get to the venue on show day

I am pleased to say that Rhudi has had another busy and successful year and is looking forward to his forthcoming shows.

Rhudi is placed regularly at Open and Championship Shows and succeeded in obtaining his Stud Book Number in 2015.

Rhudi is a lovely boy, and is known at shows for his constantly wagging tail. A very happy boy.

Introducing our latest member of the family - this is Brodie. A real character who is full of mischief but with a way about him to make you forgive whatever he has been up to and he is usually up to something!

He is now one of the Scomar Boys and has been accepted as one of the gang.
My grateful thanks to Pat Whitehead for letting us take him home with us..

Weyhill Isabella

Izzie has had a super start to her show career, the highlight of which was being awarded best bitch puppy at the Cocker Spaniel Club Championship Show.

She was BPIS at Hants & Sussex and Home Counties Cocker Clubs and has been well placed at most shows attended.

She is a delightful girl with a happy outgoing temperament and loves her cuddles on the sofa in the evenings.

We would like to thank all judges who have thought highly of our lovely girl especially Mr Mike Masters for a unforgettable day at the Cocker Club.

Merlin is finally emerging from his massive woolly puppy coat and I am only too pleased with what I have felt but now I see.

Merlin delighted me on qualifying for Crufts on his very first outing at Border Union in June.

He has been consistently placed at Open shows and at Gundog Breeds Assoc of Scotland Championship show, 1st PD & BP in Breed also 1st in a very strong class AVGP.

Letter from the Editors

My goodness where has this year gone. It has not been a very happy year for the London Cocker Spaniel Society as the club lost Jennifer Lloyd Carey our Vice President on 22 May 2017. Now it is with great sadness that I have to report the death of our Patron Mrs Phyllis Wise of Astrawin. Her obituary is in this newsletter written by Frank Kane and very kindly typed up for the Newsletter by John Hartnett. All the committee and members wish to send their deepest condolences to both families.

Also I have been sent by a friend the sad news that Carol Share-Jones' husband has died. My we all send her our deepest condolences in this sad time.

The London Cocker Spaniel Society is having it Championship show and hope to see you all at Woking and lets hope people who have not been able to qualify their dogs for Crufts 2018 are successful this time round. I wish you all the luck in qualifying as Crufts is the pinnacle of the dog world.

London Cocker has its calendar out again so please see a committee member for yours, they are £7 each if collected from the show but postage will be added if ordered.

Liz Devine wishes to remind all members that the membership year starts 1st January 2018 and please send your subscription to her at "Wayside" Wyncombe Close, Fittleworth, Pulborough, West Sussex RH20 1HW, Tel: 01798865626

The subscription amount is £12 single, £13 Joint and £18 Overseas. Included in this news letter is a Standing Order form if you wish to pay this way, please fill out the form with all your details and send it to her at the above address. (Watch out for my new address as I am in the throws of moving soon, and Mail redirection will be operating)

We wish you all a happy Christmas and a healthy and happy new year.

Editors Liz Devine & Sue Warrington

CHRISTMAS FOODS THAT WILL KILL YOUR DOG.

GRAPES & RAISINS contain a potent toxin that can damage the liver of dogs & cats. Raisins are a key ingredient in mince pies & fruitcake, so keep well away from your animals.

NUTS and especially a toxin present in macadamia nuts can impede the function of a dog's digestive, muscle and nervous systems, resulting in weakness and breathlessness, tremors and swollen legs.

NUTMEG is also a danger. It's a favourite ingredient of egg nog, but if it's eaten by a dog its nervous system will begin to suffer with potentially severe consequences.

ALCOHOL has a far stronger effect on dogs than humans, and even a drop of it or any other stimulant-type drink can cause disorientation, laboured breathing and even death.

PEACHES, PLUMS & PERSIMMONS have been known to cause digestive complaints in dogs. The pips of these fruits not only pose a choking hazard, but contain a harmful cocktail of toxins.

CHOCOLATES in any form is deadly for dogs and must be taken to the vet straight away.

PHYLLIS WISE OBITUARY

The Cocker Spaniel world has lost one of its great breeders with the death of Phyllis Wise, Breeder of Astrawin cockers, on 21st August 2017, writes Frank Kane.

Phyllis bought her first Cocker, a well bred red bitch in 1948, and supported by her husband Stan, decided to start showing her. In the 1950's the breed was very strong in Phyllis' area there were some of the top kennels such as the of Wares, Treetops, Broomleaf, Colinwood, Sixshot, Peaseemores and others and it was an achievement to win a card at an open show.

In her first litter Phyllis bred the first Astrawin who in turn produced the bitch who put the kennel on the map. Astrawin Aphrodite went to the Cocker Club in 1960 and with over 300 entries won the challenge certificate under gundog authority Frank Warner Hill and with agreement of co Judge Joe Braddon she went Best in Show. Her title came soon afterwards and at Crufts in 1961, Aphrodite won Best of Breed under Gwen Broadley and in the group the trophy for best spaniel.

That was the start of a string of champions including the red dogs April Fire, Authentic, who also won Best in Show at the Cocker Club in 1971, the beautiful black bitch Amusing and my personal favourite Airsprite. The last from the Kennel to win its title in the UK was the red bitch Au Reservoir in the 1990's.

The Astrawin type was easily recognisable for its beautiful heads and cockery bodies, things, which Phyllis saw as essentials and the stock was in great demand overseas. In the 1970's Phyllis and Stan had two youngsters from Finland stay: Arja Koskelo and Anja Pummala. Later they had dogs from Astrawin which were very influential in the breed in Scandinavia.

Arja had Nordic Ch Advisor and Anja had Int Ch Apollo, dog of the year in Finland in 1975. There were others too like Adventurer, Best in Show at the prestigious Copenhagen international, Action Man and others which provided foundation stock for breeders. In the USA the black and tan dog Applejack had a great career. Phyllis was always pleased to see her stock doing well for others and she was especially proud when her two Finnish protegees Arja and Anja judged the breed at Crufts together and she was there to see them. Phyllis first awarded CC's in the 1960's awarding her first certificate to the great black and white dog, Wells Fargo of Weirdene.

She later judged the breed at Crufts and at the Cocker Club and many countries overseas. She served on several breed club committees and for many years hosted a puppy walk and garden party in her beautiful garden at Poyle Cottage.

When she retired from breeding and showing, Phyllis maintained her keen interest, co-writing a book with me, and taking on the breed notes in 'Dog World'

When her last homebred cocker died she acquired a retired Lujesa bitch which carried her bloodline and Jade became a very pampered cocker.

Outside her canine interests Phyllis had led a very varied life. She had been an ambulance driver in London during the Second World War. She loved fast cars, especially her Volvo Sports, and well into her eighties drove her motor home to shows, especially the Cocker Club in Malvern with her Romanian friend who visited yearly. Phyllis was a wonderful host to cocker enthusiasts from many countries and had a great sense of humour.

Evenings at Poyle Cottage with Michael Boothroyd and Jimmy Cudworth were always hilarious. Phyllis was very interested in politics and current affairs, especially 'Question Time' with David Dimbleby and I was amused one night to hear the viewers question from Phyllis Wise of Tongham on the deflation of the pound.

She admired the leadership of Margaret Thatcher and was delighted when their paths crossed at the Ritz hotel where Phyllis had been invited to afternoon tea. Seeing Mrs Thatcher and her detective in the lobby Phyllis went up and introduced herself and had a long chat. It was Phyllis' many interests which kept her so vital and interested and it was a sad time when physical frailty limited her mobility and eventually more frequent hospitalisation.

Phyllis loved her Elizabethan cottage and garden and to have to leave it and enter a nursing home was very hard, so the last two years have not been easy. On my visits she would still be able to talk of cockers and cocker people but she was tired. However, despite the difficulties of her last years she always counted herself blessed with the pleasure she had enjoyed from her dogs and her loyal caring friends in her life.

A life well lived and loved. A great spirit gone. Rest in peace Phyllis.

The funeral will take place at Aldershot Crematorium on Friday 8th September, 2017 at 1.30pm

SPECIAL AWARDS JUDGE FOR FEBRUARY 2018

Tracy Morgan

My judging appointments and showing have always been limited by my work. However, Cocker Spaniels have always been in my life.

My grandparents had Nick of Ware, my Mother had a Cocker called Lassie and when she bought Betty Bouncer of Ware in the 60's, Jennifer Carey introduced her to Mollie Robinson (Craigleith)

Mollie gave me my first Cocker and one of my first appointment photographing dogs professionally was at a London Cocker Open Show.

Now 36 years later I have been to many countries commissioned to photograph hundreds of different breeds.

Illustrated over 55 books. The first all the dogs were chosen to represent their breed by myself, sold 5 million copies worldwide.

So I have had the unusual privilege of getting my camera and hands on top winning dogs here and abroad my whole career.

I so look forward to cuddling Cockers, I mean judging today.

STORY OF TOPSY

(sent in to LCSS newsletter in March 1963)

By PHYLLIS WISE (ASTRAWINS)

We have our dear Topsy nearly 12 years old. She started drinking a lot just before xmas and my vet thought at first it was Metritis and advised us to have the uterus removed when the weather improved—or earlier if things became acute. She had had these bouts of water drinking before at about 6 monthly intervals but they had always cleared up and she returned to normal. This time she did not and began to lose weight rapidly. It was decided to test her urine and on examination she was found to be suffering from sugar diabetes. She is now on a mainly protein diet with only a very small amount of biscuit and touch wood, she has stopped drinking and is much fitter in herself. She also has Casilan made with milk every morning. How long she will go on remains to be seen—one partner only gives her a few months—the other is more optimistic. I only hope the later is right. No doubt early diagnosis of this disease is a great thing, and anyone with an elderly dog with the above symptoms would be wise to check the urine.

DOG RECIPES

Homemade dog treats for Christmas

FOR A GLOSSY COAT

1 Apple 200g Porridge oats
1 Banana 30ml Olive or Vegetable oil
2 Carrots 1 tabsp Lecithin granules
100g of unsalted chicken stock 1 hard boiled egg
1 tabsp. Of finely chopped herbs

Method

Puree the apple, banana, carrots and chicken stock in a blender. Then mix well with the oats, oil and lecithin granules. Divide into portions.

Peel and roughly chop the egg. Sprinkle each portion with the hard boiled egg and the finely chopped herbs when placed in the dog bowl.

Banana Nut Biscotti

Ingredients

2 Over ripe bananas

1/4 cup plain kefir (can be bought from Amazon or foreign shops—Polish etc)

1 & 1/2 cups almond flour

Method

Blend all ingredients together and pour into a greased 5x7 inch mini loaf pan

Bake at 170c for one hour remove from oven and let cool for 20 mins. Turn out and cut into slices 1/2 inch strips. Bake strips again at 130c for an hour or until hard. Leave to cool before storing as above.

Dogs love these treats.

Turkey Meat Balls

Turkey, like chicken, is an exceptional source of protein for both cats and dogs use organic if you can afford the extra cash.

Ingredients

250g minced turkey

1 egg

1teaspoon chopped parsley

62g cottage cheese

125g sweet potato, cooked peeled & mashed.

Method

Mix all the ingredients together, and then roll into one inch balls.

Place on a greased cookie sheet and bake at 170c for 45 mins. Let cool once cooked. Store extra turkey balls in the freezer or fridge and consume within one week. If stored in the freezer, this treat can stay fresh for up to three months. An ideal way of using up the turkey at Christmas.

HOME REMEDIES FOR MINOR DOG EMERGENCIES CONSTIPATION, DIARRHOEA AND OTHER MINOR DIGESTIVE ISSUES

CANNED PUMPKIN: Keep a can of 100% pumpkin in your kitchen for the occasional mild tummy upsets.

Give a teaspoon of pumpkin for every 10 pounds of body weight, once or twice a day, either in food or as a treat. Pumpkin is rich in soluble fibre that can ease both diarrhoea and constipation.

MINOR SKIN ABRASIONS, CUTS INFECTIONS OR HOT SPOTS

POVIDONE IODINE: Povidone Iodine (Betadine) is a gentle disinfectant that can take care of staph, yeast and almost any common bacteria.

It doesn't sting or irritate the skin, and it's safe if your pet licks it.

Dilute the Povidone Iodine until it's the colour of iced tea, soak a clean cloth in it and gently wipe the cloth over the infected area of your pet's skin. Rinse the cloth and wipe it over the skin, then pat dry. Do this twice a day.

ITCHY, IRRITATED PAWS

FOOTBATHS: Did you know about 50% of your dogs foot licking and chewing can be alleviated by mechanically removing allergens and other irritants collected on a dog's paw? "Mechanically removing" simply means rinsing them off.

For big dogs use a bucket and soak one foot at a time. Little dogs stand in a sink. Dilute Povidone Iodine with water to the colour of iced tea and add it to the footbath. Swish around while your dog stands in it from two to five minutes. Dry paws with a clean towel.

FLEAS

APPLE CIDER VINEGAR: Apple cider vinegar (ACV) does NOT kill fleas, but it can help to keep them off your dog. One of the simplest approaches is to make a solution of equal part ACV and water. Add the mixture to a spray bottle and spritz it on your pet before he heads outdoors. You can spray his bedding, add to your dogs food 1 teaspoon for every 20 pound dog. Add it to bath, used it as a flea-preventative rinse 1 cup of Vinegar to 1 gallon of water. Avoid getting in the eyes and do not rinse off. Dry with a towel.

UPSET TUMMY

GINGER: Mix either fresh ground ginger or the dry herb into a tasty meatball or other yummy treat. Use 1/8 teaspoon for dogs under 10 pounds; 1/4 teaspoon for medium-sized dogs; 1/2 teaspoon for large dogs and 3/4 to 1 teaspoon for the giant breeds.

Give the ginger infused snack one to three times a day as needed. If your dogs problem is motion sickness be sure to give it to them at least an hour prior to travelling. Alternatively, you can add 1/4 cup ginger tea per 20 pounds dog weight to food daily as needed.

TO THE COCKER (poem from Dec 1960 LCSS newsletter)
The Cocker has earned itself a name, of great longstanding and world-wide fame. That is a name it'll never lose, for many a person a cocker does choose.

Cockers live all over the world, everywhere is their banner unfurled.
America , Africa, Asia too, everywhere there is a cocker for you.
However long mankind will live, the cocker will continue to give.
Utmost pleasure to young and old wherever his wonderful name is showed.

The Best Cocker of all is one called Kim, and I think the world of him.
He is wonderful in every way, when eating , sleeping and especially at play!

Sent in to London Cocker Spaniel Society by Miss Julia Batty, Dec 1960

IT'S OFFICAL, MY PET IS PORKY

Once you know what your pet currently weighs, you must establish what she/he should weigh and how to lose the extra pounds.

There is a formula to help you calculate the correct daily calories for your pet.

EXAMPLE: Lets say your dog weighs 50 pounds. Now let's calculate how many calories the dog needs to stay at her current weight using this formula:

DAILY CALORIES = BODY WEIGHT (KG) X 30 + 70

In order to use this calculation, first you have to convert the dogs weight from pounds to kilograms.

One kilogram = 2.2 pounds, so divide the dogs weight in pounds by 2.2. $50/2.2 = 22.7$. This is your dogs weight in kilograms (22.7)

Now the formula looks like this: Daily calories = $22.7 \times 30 + 70$ which comes to 751 daily calories needed to keep at their current weight.

In order for your dog to lose weight they must eat fewer calories a day. After agreeing with your vet what your dog should weigh you can then work out the calories per day needed .

The following formula is for this pouch who weighs 50 pounds to bring its weight down to 45 pounds. (a reduction of 5 pounds)

45 pounds in to kilograms = 45 divided by 2.2 = 20.4:

$20.4 \times 30 + 70 = 682$ daily calories.

DO MOSQUITOES POSE ANY THREATS TO OUR PETS?

There is no need to test pets for Zika virus. There's currently no evidence that dogs or cats can contract or transmit Zika virus, and there are no veterinary diagnostic labs offering this type of Zika testing.

But mosquitoes can be dangerous to pets, but not because of Zika virus.

A much more prevalent threat is heartworm. A parasitic disease that's spread by mosquitoes. Heartworms are a type of roundworm that lives in the blood vessels and heart of infected pets.

The worm can grow to be up to a foot long and lead to serious damage to the lungs, arteries and heart. Left untreated, heartworm infection can be fatal.

Natural heartworm prevention options are always available for those who do not want their pets to take preventive drugs. Many conventional veterinarians suggest pet owners give their dogs a heartworm-prevention drug every month, year after year, but this ignores the fact that many dogs are not at risk of heartworm year-round.

The benefits of heartworm preventives must be weighted against their potential for short and long-term side effects. In addition, heartworms are growing increasingly resistant to these widely used preventives, which suggests an urgent need to use them only when absolutely necessary.

If you live in a heartworm-endemic area, work with your holistic or integrative veterinarian to develop a sensible preventive protocol to keep your pet safe and healthy.

If you live in an area where mosquitoes are problematic, take steps to minimize them, such as:

Remove sources of standing water (including changing pet water bowls frequently)

Avoid walking your dog in areas with lots of mosquitoes, such as marshy areas.

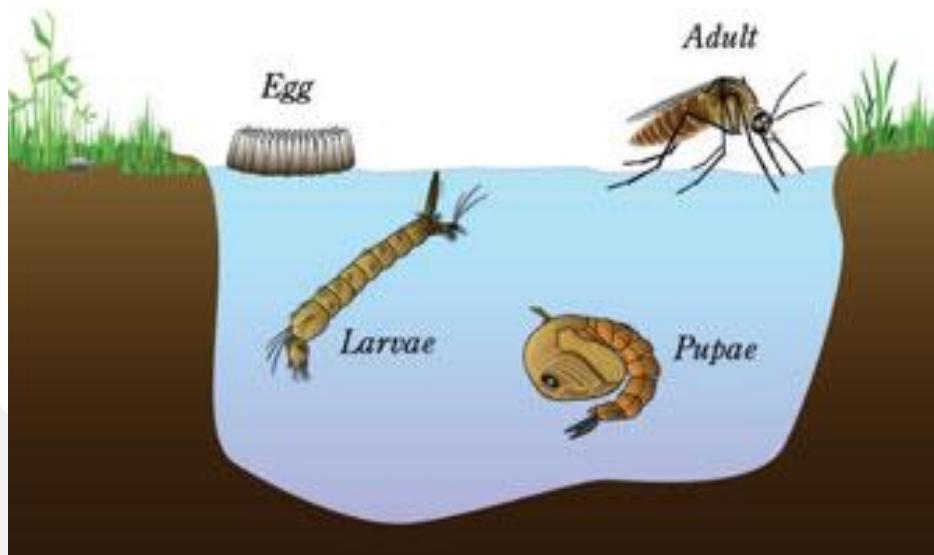

Install screens on all your windows and doors to keep mosquitoes out of your home.

Mosquitoes are most active in the early morning and early evening, so keep your pets indoors during these times.

For times when you know you'll be at high risk of mosquito bites, botanical oils specifically formulated to be applied to pets make an excellent natural repellent.

Examples to look for include blends of lemongrass, neem, catnip oil and geranium oil, which can help repel and deter mosquitoes and other pests (including fleas and ticks)
