CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

FOR AGM 2017/2018

Welcome to all the officers, committee, and members of the London Cocker Spaniel Society. This year has seen the lose of two life members Phillis Wise and Jennifer Carey their contribution and knowledge will be greatly missed by the London Cocker Spaniel Society and the rest of the dog showing world.

This left two officer positions vacant the patron and vice president which were offered to two long serving committee members. Patron position was offered to Grace Morris who excepted the position and Ann Daniels the Vice President position who excepted the position we the officers and committee congratulate them both in their new roles.

In 2017 The London Cocker Spaniel Society informed The Kennel Club that it was not supporting the field sub section any longer. After many conversations with The Kennel Club it was agreed the field sub section should apply to The Kennel Club for it's own name and licence.

Another year where we've seen entries down slightly in Open and championship shows but we still managed to put the shows on with the hard work of the Hon Secretary and the Show Secretary.

I would like to thank the officers and committee for all the time and effort they put in to arranging the judges, stewards, the meals and refreshments laid on at the 3 shows. Thanks also go out to all members and visitors for attending the shows because with out their support the shows would not continue.

Thanks go to Les, Barny, and his daughter for their time that they give to run the trade stand at Crufts as this is a very long and tiring day.

The two open shows were well attended. The championship show was held in December which was well supported by members and it is always nice to see the oversea's members supporting the show and catching up with friends. A thank you goes to the members for supporting the buffet with the food donations to make this a great occasion. The entertainment during the lunch break was well supported with members parading in their Christmas novalty's judged by Santa Claus cant wait to hear what next year will bring.

Like all dog clubs finding new committee members is hard but if you feel you could give your time to join a committee you would be welcome to apply.

Stephen Donald
Chairman

HON GENERAL SECRETARY AND SHOW SECRETARY's REPORT, 2017/2018

Good afternoon officers and committee, ladies and gentleman. Time fly's by so very quickly and we are planning our next championship show 2018. The 2017 champ show was again a huge success, this year we welcomed more overseas friends and cocker spaniel lovers. We put in place a refreshment area with tea, coffee and biscuits for them as a warm welcome to our winter show. A special brace class was introduced this year in memory of our benefactor Mr Colinwood with a trophy and prize money which was well supported. The famous buffet at lunchtime and this year myself with a new show champion Zakova Ally Kat SHcM JW and Gill Pearce-Gudger with her new show champion Cachel Prince Charming at Pearkin JW, and Sue Cox with show champion Gardenstone Pale Rider to Suvern JW, had fabulous cakes made for all to enjoy and celebrate. With Hilde Provost with the bubbles. A huge thank you Hilde for us all.

The Panto theme this year was the onezies. This is so funny and entertaining for everyone. Thank you for supporting this, father Christmas and his elf came to visit to choose the winners.

The yearbook was excellent this year, our yearbook editor doing an amazing job, many thanks Carley Schooling. The calendar was well sought after. Thank you Tracy Morgan I love our photo sessions!!

Last year we had a special general meeting with the field section, no longer a part of the LCSS. A stressful time for all concerned. A new booklet now available with the latest edition of the LCSS rules, I'm sure Jennifer would be very pleased.

Sad to report our PATRON passed away peacefully on 21st August 2017, Mrs Phyllis Wise known as her Asterwin affix known world wide. She served on several breed clubs and committees also being our President. Her knowledge will be greatly missed.

My sincere thanks to Liz Devine who works tirelessly on the Crufts stand and being our valued membership administrator. Liz also produced the twice yearly newsletter with a little help from me. The December issue worked well by going in the yearbook, also cutting costs. The continuance of the yearbook depends on the support of advertisers, members and non members, with facebook people put the wins and news-stories straight onto the media, it also costs nothing. This year a massive thank you to a fab team who work tirelessly at our very successful shows, so very proud of you all, Thank You, and many thanks to John Hartnett the show secretary. Thanks to Sue Hutchings for your well known liver cake and a handmade bed to best veteran donated to the club. Thanks Bridget Harris for your amazing home made cakes and everyone else who has contributed into baking. Thanks to all without your valued support the LCSS wouldn't flourish, thankfully the club is set well for the future.

We supported and sponsored South of England Gun Dog classes and Louise Clark with £50 of prize money, I have put photos on the LCSS FB for all to see, it was illustrated in the local paper.

Sincere Thanks

Sue Warrington

TREASURER'S REPORT FOR AGM YEAR ENDING 2017

Treasures Report for 2017

Last year had close similarities to that of previous years, with one notable exception. Our show profits reduced, our open shows entries are always a concern, however, our championship show always attracts a good entry, and has become a most enjoyable show, with a small proportion of the entries coming from continental exhibitors.

The year book continues to run at a loss, therefore being subsidised by society funds. While we have located a very competitive printer, our income from advertising is extremely low. It may be that without greater advertising income, the future of the year book may be at risk.

The notable exception to previous years accounts is the SGM and legal fees incurred, separating the field sub section from ourselves. A great deal of work was involved by the officers and committee. Where legal advice is sought, this is not in-expensive.

The accounts for year ending 31/12/2017 have been prepared without current figures from the field sub-section. These accounts for year ending 31/12/2017 have not been submitted to us, therefore the only figures we can use are those for year ending 31/12/2016. In discussions with our accountant, he advised that the figures for 2016 be used as no official notice had been received by us that they are a separate society.

2017 was a year of great sadness losing both Jennifer Lloyd-Carey, and Phyllis Wise, both of whom made a significant contribution to the society, over many years. We will miss them greatly.

Phyllis very kindly made a bequest to the society in her will, for which we are very grateful. I have been in touch with her relatives, sending thanks from the society.

As with all previous years I have declined to accept my honorarium payment.

AGM MEMBERSHIP REPORT FOR 2018

AGM Membership report for 2018

Thank you to all the members who paid on time and by standing order. I apologies for missing the championship show and thanks Geof. Worstfold for standing in for me, this was due to my moving house 3 days before. Also due to my husband being taken into hospital the night before I missed Crufts and I'd like to thank all those who helped out at this show. I do know this put great pressure on those concerned and wish to thank them all.

The numbers of new members has been very poor this year and with more deaths and several people not renewing their membership our current membership stands as below.

Our membership to date for 2018 is:

UK members	Single = 113	(including 4 life members)
	Joint = 104	(52 joint)

Overseas members	18
Total	235

Liz Devine 21/7/2018

JUDGING REPORT - DOGS

London Cocker Spaniel Club Championship Show 1st December 2018

It was an honour to be invited to judge at this very special show with its festive atmosphere and I would like to sincerely thank all exhibitors who allowed me the pleasure of going over their cockers and sportingly accepted my decisions. Thanks to the stewards who made my job much easier and also of course to the secretary and very hard working committee - I appreciated the excellent hospitality.

Any other Colour

1 Special Puppy Dog (5,1):

1, BMP & BP Gonzalez & Martinez's Corazon De Sibi Bring the Action. Blue baby of only 7 months, best mover in this class. Classic, well chiselled head with square muzzle. Soft dark eyes. Good length of neck neatly set into well laid shoulder. Curvy, cobby body standing on straight front legs, well-angulated hindquarters and tight feet. Very promising puppy who looked better and better as the show went on and he gained more confidence in the multiple classes he appeared.

2 White's Merrysprings Magic Star. I liked this neatly put together handsome light blue for his nicely moulded head and kindest of expressions. Good spring of rib reaching back to very short couplings, giving a very square outline. Well let down hocks, neatest of feet. Moved true and looked very attractive with his silky silver jacket.

3 Pretty's Joaldy Best Mate. Light blue with appealing head, typy cockery outline, short and well ribbed up, nicely rounded hindquarters used to move covering the ground.

2 Special Novice Dog (4):

1 Pearce-Gudger's Glowhill Silversmith. B&w of overall excellent type. Deep cobby body giving a short & square picture. Classic cocker head with depth of muzzle and sweet eye. Just right length of neck fitting neatly into sloping shoulders. Level topline and well rounded over the beam. Positive and true on the move.

2 Clavaire Cartier. Handsome blue with very appealing make & shape. Shining coat. Reachy neck, well laid shoulder, deep in rib, short coupled. Good width of thigh with good bend of stifle. Moved steadily.

3 De Paule's Charbonnel Ruff N' Tumble. Dark blue of lovely type, very short and well knit together. Deep in rib with nicely angled hindquarters and good tailset. True movement fore and aft.

3 Special Graduate Dog (3,1):

1 Clifford's Serci After Dark Shadow Amor of Chamford (IMP SRB). Beautifully presented typy blue with compact shape. Quality head with kind dark eye. Liked his angulation fore & aft and level topline which he kept on the move. Nicely rounded across the beam with well set on tail, carried correctly.

2 Wildman's Reemif Midnight Blue for Chanmalo Sh CM. Another very well presented blue dog full of cocker type. Masculine but chiselled head shape. Clean neck & shoulders, leading to deep well sprung ribs and rounded wide hindquarters. Moved with drive.

4 Special Open Dog(5):

A strong, quality class, but particularly my first three are stunning cockers of differing type, who I have much admired from the ringside. A delight to watch when they came in the ring and all have such huge presence. First two especially, caused me the most difficult decision I have ever had to make.

1 & DCC & BIS Amos-Jones's Sh Ch Veratey Vincenzo at Cassom JW. What can be said that hasn't already about this very special cocker?! Presents the most compact, balanced, flowing outline, so full of cocker type with strength and substance without coarseness. Classic handsome head & soft expression. Reachy neck neatly set into sloping shoulder. Good return of upper arm. Everything in proportion - big ribs, correct length of leg, short in loin, wide across the beam with well let down hocks. In super coat and condition. Keeps a firm topline on the move while he powers around the ring enjoying himself at one with his handler. Flat coat is presented in perfect condition.

2 & Res CC Thomas's Sh Ch Claramand Ziggy Ziggy JW Sh CM. Love this compact o&w dog in beautiful coat and condition. He fills my eye. So cockery with all angles in symmetrical balance. Good square muzzle in correct proportions to his lovely moulded skull. Kind expressive eyes. Good reach of neck. Well developed forechest, short-coupled, deep cobby body. Correct bone & substance for size. Moved with drive keeping his square, firm outline. Best of tailsets and carriage.

3 Pearce-Gudger's Sh Ch Cachel Prince Charming of Pearkim JW. Beautiful head proportions with tight rimmed eye and sweet expression. Lovely cockery outline with everything fitting so well together. Reachy neck, well laid shoulder, good depth of rib and nicely rounded hindquarters. Moved out covering the ground well.

Any Solid Colour

5 Special Puppy (3,1):

1 Garnett's Clevernett Knight Crusader. Lovely headed b&t baby of good size for age. Short coupled with good hind angulation, neat feet and when handler got him going, moved steadily and true.

2 McGrath-Wells' Midnight Masquerade at Glenbrows. Another very raw baby, head developing nicely, very short with good bone, tight feet. Playing up her handler on the move but time and practice will sort him out.

6 Special Novice Dog (1):

1 Clevernett Knight Crusader

7 Special Graduate Dog (4,1):

1 Young's Canyonn Classic Legacy. Honest shaped black with quality refined head and soft eye. Good lay-back of shoulder, short-coupled deep body leading to well angulated hindquarters. Level topline and moved true when settled.

2 Marris-Bray's Helenwood Pied Piper TAF. Typy young red with classic head, good length of neck, short & deep cobby body and wide, well angled hindquarters with good tailset.

3 Clevernett Knight Crusader

8 Special Open Dog (5):

1 Pollock's Thurness the Illusionist. Beautifully put together b&t, presenting a very stylish outline. Super neck & shoulders, return of upper arm and deep, big-ribbed body. Well rounded and angulated hindquarters. Has substance, tight feet. In immaculate coat and condition. Moved with drive when settled

2 Kew's Lujesa Starman at Wyllyevew. Taller black dog, balanced masculine head with appealing expression. Very well put together with cobby body, and good angles fore and aft. True mover,

Any Colour

9 Veteran (8):

1 Costello's Judika Arizona. B&t dog in great order, really enjoying his day out. Gorgeous head, super reach of neck flowing into well placed shoulders, level topline and well rounded, angulated hindquarters which he used to drive around the ring.

2 Pretty's Sh Ch Int/Bel/Hun Ch Joaldy Mandolin Wind Sh CM, b&w of completely different type to 1, but has true cocker character. Sweet but masculine head and eye, short & deep body, well balanced angles and keeps his firm outline on the move. Presented in immaculate condition

3 Wildman's Mystical Willow at Chanmalo Sh CM. Completing a very handsome trio of senior cockers. Everything in proportion and balance, well constructed with substance and good cocker type.

10 Minor Puppy Dog (9):

1 Corazon De Sibi Bring the Action

2 Flowers' Kenwad Amanti Espanol . Well presented, black baby with such a stylish outline and so neatly put together. Handsome head, reachy neck set into well-placed shoulders, short coupled, well ribbed up with level topline, neat feet.

3 Barnes' Challowdown Day Tripper. Attractive blue with lots of cocker type. Appealing head, good reach of neck, well laid shoulder and big ribbed cobby body, Good width across the beam, just needs to come up on his legs, merry mover.

11 Puppy Dog (4):

1 Corazon De Sibi Bring the Action

2 Merrysprings Magic Star

3 Alen Ashen Art Design (ATC AV022554 RUS). Blue of good substance and square outline. Sweet eye and expression, reachy neck, nicely angulated fore and aft. Moved well.

1 Robertson's Kastrian Affection Quality black of flowing lines combines true cocker type with elegance and substance. Appealing head shape with expressive eyes. Good length of neck, set into well laid shoulder. Deep in rib and short in loin, moved the best keeping a firm outline. Presented in gleaming coat.

2 Kettles' Lujesa Impossible Dream. Another lovely black built on bigger lines. Well balanced skull and muzzle, reachy neck, clean well sloping shoulder and correct upper arm angulation. Big ribbed body, again, everything flowed together, keeping a good shape on the move.

3 Helenwood Pied Piper TAF

1 Corazon de Sibi Night Star (IMP ESP) JW . Very cobby, beautifully shaped blue with appealing head. Deep and nicely sprung ribs, short coupled, just right for bone & substance, neat feet, good width across the beam, moved true, keeping his smart outline.

2 Davies & Pretty's Kerriglow Game of Thrones JW. Well constructed black with good length of neck, well laid shoulders. Short coupled, level topline, well angulated and rounded hindquarters. Moved freely.

3 Britton's Tyluly Starlite Jewel. Nicely constructed red dog of good substance. Well proportioned head with soft expression. Kept a good outline on the move.

14 Maiden Dog (1):

1 Clevernett Knight Crusader

15 Tyro Dog (1):

1 Carey's Falconers Woodchat of Ware. Appealing head, handsome orange roan, deep in rib, short coupled, good expanse of thigh and well muscled with good bone and tight feet. Moved out freely.

THE BREED STANDARD

A Breed Standard is the guideline which describes the ideal characteristics, temperament and appearance of a breed and ensures that the breed is fit for function. Absolute soundness is essential. Breeders and judges should at all times be careful to avoid obvious conditions or exaggerations which would be detrimental in any way to the health, welfare or soundness of this breed. From time to time certain conditions or exaggerations may be considered to have the potential to affect dogs in some breeds adversely, and judges and breeders are requested to refer to the Kennel Club website for details of any such current issues (www.the-kennel-club.org.uk/services/public/breeds/watch) If a feature or quality is desirable it should be present in the right measure. However if a dog possesses a feature, characteristic or colour described as undesirable or highly undesirable it is strongly recommended that it should not be rewarded in the show ring.

General Appearance

Merry, sturdy, sporting; well balanced; compact; measuring approximately same from withers to ground as from withers to root of tail.

Characteristics

Merry nature with ever-wagging tail shows a typical bustling movement, particularly when following scent, fearless of heavy cover.

Temperament

Gentle and affectionate, yet full of life and exuberance.

Head and Skull

Square muzzle, with distinct stop set midway between tip of nose and occiput. Skull well developed, cleanly chiselled, neither too fine nor too coarse. Cheek bones not prominent. Nose sufficiently wide for acute scenting power.

Eyes

Full, but not prominent. Dark brown or brown, never light, but in the case of liver, liver roan and liver and white, dark hazel to harmonise with coat; with expression of intelligence and gentleness but wide awake, bright and merry; rims tight.

Ears

Lobular, set low on a level with eyes. Fine leathers extending to nose tip. Well clothed with long, straight silky hair.

Mouth

Jaws strong with a perfect, regular and complete scissor bite, i.e. upper teeth closely overlapping lower teeth and set square to the jaws.

Neck

Moderate in length, muscular. Set neatly into fine sloping shoulders. Clean throat.

Forequarters

Shoulders sloping and fine. Legs well boned, straight, sufficiently short for concentrated power. Not too short to interfere with tremendous exertions expected from this grand, sporting dog.

Body

Strong, compact. Chest well developed and brisket deep; neither too wide nor too narrow in front. Ribs well sprung. Loin short, wide with firm, level topline gently sloping downwards to tail from end of loin to set on of tail.

Hindquarters

Wide, well rounded, very muscular. Legs well boned, good bend of stifle, short below hock allowing for plenty of drive.

Feet

Firm, thickly padded, cat-like.

Tail

Set on slightly lower than line of back. Must be merry in action and carried level, never cocked up. Previously customarily docked.

Docked: Never too short to hide, nor too long to interfere with, the incessant merry action when working.

Undocked: Slightly curved, of moderate length, proportionate to size of body giving an overall balanced appearance; ideally not reaching below the hock. Strong at the root and tapering to a fine tip; well feathered in keeping with the coat. Lively in action, carried on a plane not higher than level of back and never so low as to indicate timidity.

Gait/Movement

True through action with great drive covering ground well.

Coat

Flat, silky in texture, never wiry or wavy, not too profuse and never curly. Well feathered forelegs, body and hindlegs above hocks.

Colour

Solid Colours

Black; red; golden; liver (chocolate); black and tan; liver and tan; No white allowed except a small amount on chest.

Particolours Bicolours

Black and white; orange and white; liver & white; lemon and white; All with or without ticking

Tricolours

Black, white and tan; liver, white and tan.

Roans

Blue roan; orange roan; lemon roan; liver roan; blue roan and tan; liver roan and tan.

Any colour or marking other than the above is undesirable.

Size

Height approximately: dogs: 39-41 cms (15 1/2-16 ins); bitches: 38-39 cms (15-15 1/2 ins).

Weight approximately: 13-14.5 kgs (28-32 lbs).

Faults

Any departure from the foregoing points should be considered a fault and the seriousness with which the fault should be regarded should be in exact proportion to its degree and its effect upon the health and welfare of the dog, and on the dog's ability to perform its traditional work.

Note

Male animals should have two apparently normal testicles fully descended into the scrotum.

THE COCKER SPANIEL BREED COUNCIL

Established 1968
www.cockerspaniel-info.org.uk

The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council represents 22 of the 23 Clubs for the breed, thus enabling member Cocker Spaniel Clubs to speak with a united voice on all matters affecting the breed.

Two meetings of The Breed Council take place in each year, with the Spring meeting incorporating the AGM where Officers are nominated from the 22 member Breed Clubs. All items to be discussed at any meeting are either proposed by member Clubs or by The Kennel Club. The Judges Sub-Committee of The Breed Council sit as and when required.

The Breed Council maintains 5 judging lists, A1, A2, A3, B and C:

- A1 list includes date of last CC appointment;
- A3 date of inclusion on the list and future appointments (names are added to the list following approval by member clubs at one of the two meetings in each year);
- B List applicants are included on the list when fulfilled the relevant criteria.
- Central C List for new and aspiring judges in our breed.

All judging lists are up-dated regularly. Application forms and criteria for all lists are to be found on The Breed Council website at

KENNEL CLUB CODE OF ETHICS

All breeders who register their puppies, and new owners who register ownership of their dogs with the Kennel Club, accept the jurisdiction of the Kennel Club and undertake to abide by its general Code of Ethics.

Breeders/Owners:

1. Will properly house, feed, water and exercise all dogs under their care and arrange for appropriate veterinary attention if and when required.
2. Will agree without reservation that any veterinary surgeon performing an operation on any of their dogs which alters the natural conformation of the animal, or who carries out a caesarean section on a bitch, may report such operation to the Kennel Club.
3. Will agree that no healthy puppy will be culled. Puppies which may not conform to the Breed Standard should be placed in suitable homes.
4. Will abide by all aspects of the Animal Welfare Act.
5. Will not create demand for, nor supply, puppies that have been docked illegally.
6. Will agree not to breed from a dog or bitch which could be in any way harmful to the dog or to the breed.
7. Will not allow any of their dogs to roam at large or to cause a nuisance to neighbours or those carrying out official duties.
8. Will ensure that their dogs wear properly tagged collars and will be kept leashed or under effective control when away from home.
9. Will clean up after their dogs in public places or anywhere their dogs are being exhibited.
10. Will only sell dogs where there is a reasonable expectation of a happy and healthy life and will help with the re-homing of a dog if the initial circumstances change.
11. Will supply written details of all dietary requirements and give guidance concerning responsible ownership when placing dogs in a new home.
12. Will ensure that all relevant Kennel Club documents are provided to the new owner when selling or transferring a dog, and will agree, in writing, to forward any relevant documents at the earliest opportunity, if not immediately available.

KENNEL CLUB CODE OF ETHICS

13. Will not sell any dog to commercial dog wholesalers, retail pet dealers or directly or indirectly allow dogs to be given as a prize or donation in a competition of any kind. Will not sell by sale or auction Kennel Club registration certificates as stand alone items (not accompanying a dog).

14. Will not knowingly misrepresent the characteristics of the breed nor falsely advertise dogs nor mislead any person regarding the health or quality of a dog.

15. Members will, when breeding dogs, adopt as a minimum standard the principles, requirements and recommendations as embodied in the Kennel Club's Assured Breeder Scheme. It is strongly recommended that members who breed should apply to join the scheme.

BREACH OF THESE PROVISIONS MAY RESULT IN EXPULSION FROM CLUB MEMBERSHIP, AND/OR DISCIPLINARY ACTION BY THE KENNEL CLUB AND/OR REPORTING TO THE RELEVANT AUTHORITIES FOR LEGAL ACTION, AS APPROPRIATE

THE JUDGE

*I want to be a dog show judge, I want my name in lights
I started at the bottom, but I want to reach the heights.
I've done all the assessments, I've travelled near and far
I've covered every county, in my trusty little car.*

*I've befriended all the secretaries, I've got to know who's who
I know all the committees, and just what's the thing to do.*

*And now I've got my first big show, the dogs are walking in
I have to really concentrate, and decide who I should bin.*

*That second dog is very smart, and moving really well
But I don't know him from Adam, so he can go as well.*

*There's Mary standing at the front, her dog is past his peak
But I think I'll give her Best in Breed, she's judging us next week.*

*Phyllis should retire that dog, his front is really bad
But I want to use her stud dog, so best not get her mad.*

*The dog that I put second, his owners got a cheek
I know that its sedated, it bit the judge last week.*

*Well that's the judging over, I think I did it well
Now, who owes me a favour? Only time will tell!*

STRANGE BREED by Steve Langille

BACK GROUND ON LOUISE F. SHATTUCK COURTESY OF UMASS AMHERST LIBRARIES SPECIAL COLLECTIONS AND UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES

Louise F Shattuck 1919 - 2005

In her long life, Louise Shattuck wore many hats, artist, teacher, dog-breeder, writer and Spiritualist, but to her, she only wore one: that of an art-making, skill-teaching, dog-breeding, writing and spirit-talking resident of Lake Pleasant, Massachusetts. Somehow, Louise managed the difficult feat of knitting these disparate strands into a single seamless life, her professional and personal interests weaving together in a unique creative way. Geographically, intellectually and spiritually, the centre of Louise's life was the village of Lake Pleasant, Massachusetts. One of five villages in the town of Montague, Lake Pleasant was established in 1870 when George Potter, a real estate agent from neighbouring Greenfield, sensed a business opportunity. Acquiring the land around the southern tip of the lake, Potter set up picnic tables and invited local residents to use the area as a park. It was an instant success, so much so Potter rapidly decided to cash out, selling the property to the Boston and Maine Railroad Company in 1872 so that it could be expanded into a regional destination for summer tourism. Taking advantage of the scenic lake front and deep woods, the Railroad erected a railroad stop, a pavilion and bandstand, hotel and other amenities. Waging an aggressive marketing campaign, they lured dozens, and eventually thousands of tourists per year. From the outset, some of these visitors came in groups: Old Fellows, Freemasons, Congregationalists, Unitarians and Spiritualists among them.

It was Spiritualists more than any other group, who exerted the greatest influence on the development of Lake Pleasant, and particularly those associated with the New England Spiritualist Camp-meeting Association (NESCA). Formed in 1874 and incorporated in 1879, NESCA was part of the first wave of truly successful regional and national level Spiritualist organisations, built upon the evangelical model of holding seasonal and then later permanent camp meetings. From the beginning, NESCA found a home in Lake Pleasant paralleling other Spiritualist groups that attached themselves to camps in Etna, Maine, Lilydale, N.Y., Chesterfield, Ind., and Cassadaga, Fla. Spiritualism soon transformed the look and feel of the community in the pine woods. "There never was a summer night when one did not have a choice of attending any number of [Spiritualist] 'circles'," Louise wrote in the Yankee Magazine in 1968 (p.141). In 1913 a number of Lake Pleasant Spiritualists affiliated with the NESCA split with their peers over some philosophical differences to form the National Spiritual Alliance (TNSA). For over sixty years, the village hosted two Spiritualist temples, one for each faction.

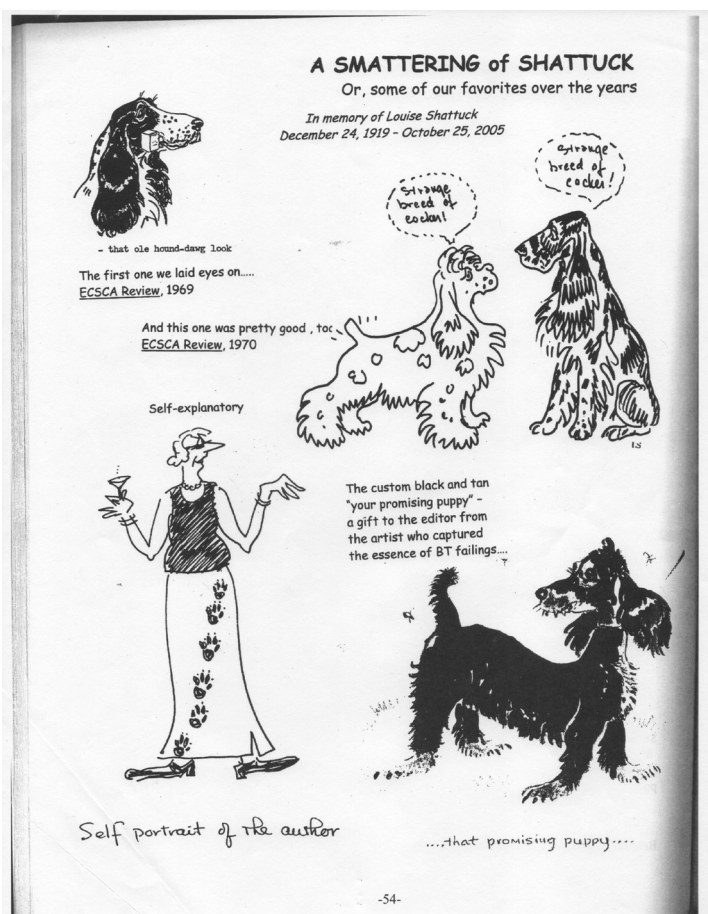

When Louise was born on 24 December 1919, the only child of a railway electrician Frank Shattuck and his wife Sarah (Bickford), Lake Pleasant was in its heyday. Like their adopted village, the Shattucks were committed Spiritualists: Louise's maternal grandmother, Anna (Dyer) Bickford, was one of the early mediums at the resort and Sarah Shattuck (also called Sara or Sadie) followed suit, delivering spirit messages and inspiration from spirit sources up until the time of Louise's birth. Louise inherited mediumistic tendencies from her women forebears and although she never acted as a professional medium, throughout her life she engaged in automatic writing and in use of the planchette and Ouija board to contact spirit beings. In the years following the First World War, Lake Pleasant experienced a slow decline, driven in part by the decrease of summering as a middle class activity and of Spiritualism as a religion. Although the rise of the automobile and decay of the American Rail system hurt many summer resorts, Lake Pleasant was hit particularly hard after access to the lake was curtailed and then shut off when its waters became a reservoir for the town of Montague. The Shattucks, however, remained loyal. Although Louise was born and raised in Medford, Massachusetts she and her family continued to summer in the cottage Frank had built barley twenty yards from the TNSA temple, and following Frank's death in 1948, Sarah became a full time resident. Louise emulated her mother in more than just mediumistic talents: the two shared a passion for animals, particularly dogs, also for art and teaching. By Louise's senior year at Medford High School she was already set on her future life course, entering the Massachusetts College of Art (1941) she was intent on making a career in the graphic arts. Although she taught art off and on for many years, beginning with a stint of teaching ceramics at Garland Junior College in Boston (later absorbed into Simmons College) she began as early as 1943 to produce ceramic clay and bronze figures for commercial distribution. Striking her first contacts with the Boston firm Contemporary Arts, taking her grandmothers maiden name (Ann Dyer) as a pseudonym, she began to distribute work through Hudson Pewter, Lance Corporation and the American Pewter Company. Thematically and stylistically, Louise's early work was quite diverse, ranging from a figurine of a ballet dancer to a small sculpture of an Arab rider on horseback (one of her favourite pieces) that was sculpted under the influence of a spirit named Charles Memling. By the mid – 1940's, however, her work acquired a real focus when she settled into a niche as an animal artist, dogs being her distinct favourite subject. An early member of the Society of Animal Arts, she also did a great deal of graphic work for magazines, particularly those associated with dog breeding, producing pen and ink drawings and cartoons, as well as pastels and paintings, both for private commission and retail distribution. Her love of dogs extended well beyond her artwork and dog assumed a greater prominence in her life as she grew older. As proprietor of Carry On Kennels, she became well known as a breeder of English Cocker Spaniels and stalwart in the English Cocker Spaniel Club of America.

Louise also became an author. In addition to two humorous works on her experiences with dogs, "From Riches to Bitches" (1979) and "In Stiches Over Bitches"(1983), Louise wrote and illustrated a children's book, "The Donkey and the Tree"(1999). Her last book, co-written with her friend David James was "Portrait of the body, mind and soul" of her beloved Lake Pleasant, "Spirit and Spa" (2003).

Never married, Louise joined her mother in Lake Pleasant in 1967 as Sarah's health began to fail. Louise remained active as a sculpture and illustrator well into her 80's remaining in her family cottage until her death in October 2005.

CHALKHILL

Tudormist Seashore At Chalkhill

(Breeze)

27.02.2006 - 20.12.2018

Breeze is missed by us all, sadly put to sleep to save suffering. She gave us so much pleasure both in and out of the show ring, her achievements mentioned in earlier year books.

A lady knowing her own mind she decided that after success at all dog show levels she preferred a home life of country walks and in charge of meet-and-greet to all visitors.

Breeze had a sweet temperament and proved to be a wonderful mother to two litters of puppies.

Quite a busy year for clover, starting by producing a lovely litter of nine puppies to Abercrombie of La Vie Manifique to Claramand in early February. Clover was a super mother, she took time to re grow her coat through the summer and delighted us by winning Best Beginners Bitch at Richmond Championship Show.

Late autumn Clover gained her Good Citizens Gold Award at the same time her daughter Topaz achieved her Bronze at 9 months old and Chalkhill Meteor (Diego) his Silver.

Midland Cocker Championship Show certainly turned out to be a day I will never forget, when breed specialist Mr.Roland Web awarded Ziggy his 3rd CC in fabulous company, a dream come true for sure. Ziggy has continued to do well throughout 2018, even though we have missed a lot of the shows, I wonder what 2019 will bring, when his children enter the arena !!

Abercrombie Of La Vie Magnifique For Claramand JW.

Let's not forget Ziggy's fabulous father who had such a superb show career before making way for his son.. My Crazy Cromby, his zest for life will be remembered by many as he gave me such a hard time in the ring, but always so very happy, he certainly enjoys himself no matter what he is doing, especially when charging around the garden at break neck speed !!

And not forgetting my lovely girl Britt, [Hustonia Britannia] the mother of Ziggy, she also had many good times in the ring before her coat dropped and she had to retire.

Jax arrived by car during during a terrible snow storm only minutes before the road was closed. How he has changed during his time here, still a long way to go but what a joy he is, such a happy lad who loves everyone, just like his sire, Ch.Claramand Code Red. A pleasure to show and to live with, and what a smashing start he had to his show career when he won Best Puppy In Show at Yorkshire Cocker Championship show.

GENAVIEVE

Challowdown Loopy Lou With Genavieve

Florence is an absolute delight, she came to us at a very low time, we did not know how we would get through, knowing we were losing two of our lovely girls Fliss and CoCo. She gave us reason to keep going when we were grieving and at our side through some very sad times. We cannot Thank Dawn Barnes our very dear friend for trusting us with such an Angel, not only is she lovely and sweet natured she has excelled herself in every way. She is a pleasure to own and Show, among many of her wins she has qualified for Crufts at Windsor, East of England. Richmond, London Cocker and LKA.

She has had 6 BPIB group placings and a 3rd BPIS at Windsor Gundog

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

Oh my goodness what a hot spell we are all having, lets hope your dogs are coping with the heat OK and we have put a couple of articles we came across regarding the hot pavements and heat stroke signs for your information. We hope it will be useful to you and you will not need any veterinary help.

Liz received a copy of the Dog Trust magazine called “WAG” and found a very disturbing article regarding tail docking. She has copied it else where in the news letter for all to see.

Dog breeder Louise Clarke who saw her father die of cancer recently hosted a companion event at St. Olaves Village Hall in aid of Prostate Cancer UK and Target Ovarian Cancer. All the exhibitors and dogs plus Louise’s helpers on the day raised a fantastic amount of money for these two charities , the sum was £2000 and London Cocker helped to support her in her quest. She plans to continue to raise money for these two cancer charities and also hopes to include the Dementia charity with them. Well done Louise we are all very proud of you for doing this worthy task. (Full article is in the Great Yarmouth Mercury newspaper of Friday 8th June 2018).

Unfortunately we have some deaths of passed London Cocker members to announce and send our deepest sympathies to their families.

Ernie Darby (Classicway) died in March 2018

Joyce Littlemore (Krismore) Championship show judge died Feb/March 2018

Shelagh Wells (Caenriver) died March 2018.

All obituaries are in Our Dogs paper.

Looking forward to seeing all our current members and friends at our Societies shows.

Devoted Cocker Spaniel 'Molly' receives PDSA Order of Merit

A COCKER Spaniel who looks after a woman who has to endure chronic pain has been awarded the PDSA Order of Merit – the animal equivalent of the OBE – for 'outstanding devotion'.

Three-year-old Molly was honoured by the veterinary charity after being nominated by owner Lucy Watts, who is 23 and herself an MBE. The award acknowledges the tremendous impact the working Cocker has on Lucy's life and the unique bond they share.

Lucy, of Benfleet, Essex, suffers from Ehlers-Danlos syndrome which, coupled with other health complications, can leave her feeling withdrawn, isolated and unhappy; her condition is classed as life-limiting. Before Molly arrived she had been struggling to cope with the chronic pain and was bed-bound due to complications.

Molly joined the Watts household as an eight-week-old puppy and immediately lifted Lucy's spirits.

"She gave me something to focus on," Molly said. "Puppies bring so much joy anyway but Molly was like a ray of light for me. She gave me the motivation to get up and out of bed again."

Greater confidence

Before Molly, Lucy often felt ignored in public; now, taking Molly out gives her greater confidence to interact with people and she feels they can 'see past her wheelchair'.

Their bond was so strong that when Molly was ten months old she began working with Dog Assistance In Disability (Dog AID) which helps people with disabilities train their dogs to become assistance dogs.

Molly's skills are now a lifeline to Lucy as she helps with everyday tasks which would otherwise be impossible, such as picking up and fetching items on demand, removing clothing, untying shoe laces, opening doors and helping with washing.

She protects Lucy, licking her hands or arms to warn that her temperature is spiking, which can be an early sign of septicæmia, so Lucy has vital time to seek help. She also alerts Lucy when her blood pressure drops so she can lie down.

Cocker Spaniel Molly provides a lifeline for her owner, helping with everyday tasks and alerting her to drops in blood pressure.

"Molly is the best companion I could ask for," Lucy said. "She seems to know instinctively if I'm in pain or not; she never tries to jump up for a cuddle if I'm uncomfortable."

"I'm absolutely thrilled she's been awarded the PDSA Order of Merit. She was never intended as an assistance dog but her devotion to me and her training has never wavered. I would be lost without her."

The confidence Molly gave Lucy led to her working with charities as an ambassador and trustee, which included giving speeches and writing blogs. For this work Lucy was awarded an MBE in the 2016 New Year's Honours.

Flabradors! The 200,000 dogs who are so overfed they've got arthritis

DOGS face an arthritis epidemic because so many are overweight, a study found.

Labradors and golden retrievers are most commonly treated for the condition, which causes painful, inflamed joints. Rottweilers and Old English sheepdogs are also at risk.

Owners are being blamed for overfeeding pets and not exercising them enough.

The study suggests around 200,000 of the 8.5million dogs in Britain – almost 2.5 per cent – have the condition. But that may underestimate the problem as it only covers dogs that have been treated.

The study by the Royal Veterinary College said neutering also made pets more prone to arthritis, possibly because it cuts off sex hormones that may protect against it.

Being above average weight for their breed made dogs 2.3 times more likely to have arthritis diagnosed, while males were 1.2 times more likely to have the condition than bitches. The study of 455,557 pets, published in the Journal Scientific Reports, is the largest carried out into arthritis in dogs under veterinary care.

The authors said larger breeds were more susceptible than smaller ones.

The report stated: "Eleven breeds had significantly higher diagnosis of osteoarthritis compared to crossbreed dogs."

These included border collie, bull mastiff, Dogue de Bordeaux, German pointer, German shepherd, golden retriever, labrador retriever, Old English sheepdog, rottweiler, Scottish collie and springer spaniel."

Co-author Dr Dan O'Neill, of the Royal Veterinary College, said: "Breed predisposition to disease is now recognised as one of the biggest problems facing dogs."

Miss Annmarie Brookes

Kyrenia Cocker Spaniels

B List Judge on Breed Council List and The Cocker Spaniel Club

I have had cockers from birth as pets.

My mum bought my first show cocker from Mrs Penny Lester (Quettadene) in 1991. This was Quettadene Cressida who won 13 best puppy in breed at open show level, and always placed at championship shows. Dog showing is fully addicted.

I bred my first litter of puppies in 1994 and I have since gone on to own and show many dogs, 95% to stud book numbers and also receiving Junior Warrants.

I give thanks to Mrs Pat Shaw of Lochdene, who showed and owned the last Lochdene show champion in this country (Sh.Ch. Lochdene Pacifier of Kyrenia) whom along with my first bitch are behind both our lines.

I have been judging since 1999 at general open shows and this is my sixth club open show. I will be honoured to judge at the London Cocker Spaniel Society open show on the 21st July 2018.

In a major step backwards for dog welfare, the Scottish government has announced the reintroduction of tail docking for spaniels and hunting point retrievers - a group which includes Pointers, Vizslas and Weimaraners. The new law was introduced in October 2016.

Says Paula Boyden :

“We are deeply concerned about the announcement that the Scottish government will allow certain breeds of dog to be docked. Amputating a puppy’s tail is not only painful procedure but is also unnecessary. Research by the Royal Veterinary College suggests that 500 dogs would need to have their tails docked to prevent one tail injury.

Tail docking takes place when puppies are just a few days old and so we also question how it can be ensured that only puppies that will go on to be working dogs will have their tails docked”

In food processor pulse the rolled oats until fine and add the cranberries, flour and cinnamon. Tip into a bowl.. Put the livers, eggs and coconut oil in food processor and pulse until fairly smooth. Add the dry mixture gradually into food processor making sure all is mixed well. Pour into the baking tin and cook for 30 mins. Until toothpick comes out clean. Remove from oven and allow to cool, cut into bite size pieces. Store in container in fridge for a few days or can be frozen for up to 4 months.

BANANA BITES

Makes approximately 50—2cm bites.

100g buckwheat flour / wholemeal flour

100g rolled oats

70g smooth peanut butter - make sure it has Not got XYLITOL, toxic to dogs

1 small very ripe banana mashed about 90g

3 tbsp. ground flax seeds or pumpkin seeds

2tbsp. coconut oil

METHOD:

Preheat oven to 180c, gas 4. Line a couple of baking sheets with parchment paper. In a mixing bowl, stir together all of the ingredients until well combined, or pulse them in a food processor.

Turn the dough out on to a lightly floured surface and roll out to about 5mm thick. Cut into shapes with a 2cm cookie cutter - or you could use a bone shaped one.

Place the biscuits on the baking sheets. Roll out the scraps and cut into shapes, until you've used up all the dough. Bake for 20 minutes, then cool. When they are cold, store in an airtight container, or freeze what is not immediately required. They will keep in the fridge for about a week, if they last that long, but remember the calories regarding your dogs weight and trim other meals to suit.

APPLE AND CINNAMON TWISTS

240g of oat flour or wholemeal flour will do.

80g of rolled oats
1 egg—beaten
5 eating apples - peel , remove pips & dice
Pinch of cinnamon

METHOD:

Preheat oven 175c. Line baking sheets with parchment paper.

Beat the egg.

Peel, core and dice the apples, add 4ozs of water and stew the apples until very soft like apple sauce.

Mix the apple sauce, oat flour, oats and cinnamon in a bowl, pour about half the beaten egg over the mixture and stir with a wooden spoon into a dough.

Take a golf ball sized piece of dough & roll into a stick about 10ins long. Turn the stick into a U then cross the ends over each other and bring ends down over each other to form a knot. Ends to touch the base of the U.

Place on baking tray and brush with remainder of egg. Bake for 25-30 mins oven 190c until brown and quite hard to tap.

Remove from oven, allow to cool. Will freeze well but will keep in fridge for a week.

You can also mix blackberries or Blueberries with the apples.

THIRD OF DOGS CARRYING TICKS, EXPERTS WARN.

Article taken from the Daily Mail 2nd September 2016

Dog owners have been warned to be on the alert after a third of pets were found to be carrying ticks.

Random checks by vets revealed the huge number of dogs with the parasites—more than double the amount from a similar study two years earlier.

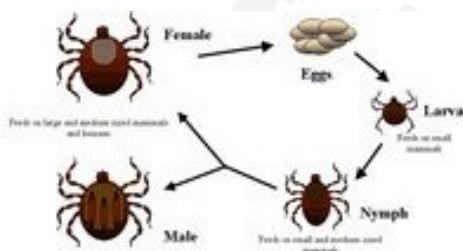

One was found to be infested with a hundred of the blood-sucking creatures. Ticks can carry Lyme disease which is potentially fatal in dogs and humans.

Taking pets for a walk in towns and cities is no safer than the countryside, as research shows ticks are just as prevalent in urban areas as rural ones.

They are found across the UK, although areas where dogs are at highest risk are East Anglia, the South West and Scotland.

Professor Richard Wall, who led the study at the University of Bristol, said: “The records that we have got appear to show that we have had an increase in tick numbers right across the country”.

More than 12,000 dogs were checked over 16 weeks last year: Thirty one percent had ticks—up from 15 per cent in 2013. Nine in ten had the variety which can carry Lyme disease. Experts said wet, warm winters of recent years had allowed ticks to thrive.

People and pooches help raise fantastic sum of £2,000 at show for pair of cancer charities

THOMAS CHAPMAN

Thomas.Chapman@hert.co.uk

More than 200 people took their pooches along to a companion dog show to raise money for two cancer charities.

Dog breeder Louise Clarke, who has seen her father, partner and friend battle cancer. In recent years, hosted the event at St Olaves Village Hall in aid of Prostate Cancer UK and Target Ovarian Cancer.

The charities will share a pot of £1,000, surpassing the sum raised at similar event two years ago that was also organised by Ms Clarke.

"It's been really amazing to receive so much support from the general public."

"The turnout was absolutely brilliant and really caught us by surprise," said Ms Clarke. "It took us an age to count the number of dogs, let alone the money we raised!"

"Now we're looking ahead to next year and have already underlined some of the judges who are going to be involved. We'd also like to start fundraising for a dementia charity as well."

A companion dog show took place at St Olaves Village Hall to raise money for two cancer charities.
