Solid Colour inc Solid & Tan, Special Puppy Dog/Bitch 4/1

1: H Lockwood's; Zakova Firedancer. Lovely head on this golden puppy with correct eye pigmentation to enhance expression. Good overall construction, maintained a level toppling on the move.

2: Mr & Mrs Selwood; Lanvin Of Merrily. Nice well put together quality puppy, nicely angulated neck and shoulders. Not quite shown to his full potential but this will come with experience.

Any Solid Colour inc Solid & Tan, Special Novice Dog/Bitch 4/2

1: Moorat's; Langleybury Disco Volante. Gold, Nicely chiseled head and soft expression. Ample neck sloping into well set shoulders. Nicely balanced throughout. A personal preference but would like to see more weight on the body. Nicely presented and moved beautifully round the ring.

2: Turnbull's; Bogarhazi. Mimi (IMP SERB) Sweet head with dark eye. Nicely proportioned body. Moved well but was clearly not happy on the day. Carrying a little too much coat to appreciate overall profile.

Any Solid Colour including Solid & Tan Special Post Graduate 4/2

1: Hilliary's; Edasiy Dream Maker. Black. Loved her overall shape and substance, she was presented in a well balanced profile. Well muscled throughout. Moved out with reach and drive.

2: Abraham's; Withiflor Puzzle at Steorra. Black and Tan. Nicely presented on the day, with good overall proportions. Slightly weaker on front and rear angulation than 1.

Any Solid Colour including Solid & Tan Special Open Dog/Bitch 7/1

1: Blackley & Salero's; Wightroache Hugh Dunnitt. Gold. Masculine head of good proportions with accurate eye pigmentation. Well laid back shoulders with strong front assembly, deep brisket beneath a firm top line. Good width of thigh and angles to hindquarters.

2: Hilliary's; Sheigra Mr Snuggles at Edasiy. Black. Pleasing head giving a kind expression. Strong through the neck and shoulders, short in loin giving a overall balanced profile. Well muscled dog with drive on the move. A difficult choice between 1 and 2.

Special Puppy any other Colour Dog/Bitch 1/0

1: Webster's; Kyna Zac Dingle at Asquanne NAF. Flashy Black & White young dog of good size, shape and substantial bone. Deep strong body with adequate angulation front and rear. Short and compact giving a nice profile stacked and on the move.

RBPIIS

Special AOC Novice Dog/Bitch 3/1

1: Cox; Gardenstone Pale Rider to Suvern. Black & White. Loved this boy. Attractive balanced head, clean neck with well laid back shoulders. Deep ribs and strong coupling leading to well muscled rear angulation. Tight feet and elbows. Short and compact altogether giving a very pleasing profile. Moved around the ring with a happy and purposeful disposition . RBIS

2: Rickwood's; Sulintay Lasienna. Another nice light blue roan slightly longer in loin, however overall nicely balanced, just preferred the type of 1.

Special Post graduate 5/0

1: Shapland's; Deracor Di Nozzo JW. Well made quality blue roan boy, masculine head, with ample neck, sloping into strong shoulders, deep rib, tight elbows and feet short compact body with powerful rear angulation. Just felt he needed a little more body to gain top honours. Loved him.

2: Bavin's; Rojoy Chase the Dream JW. Another quality Blue Roan bitch excels in bone, attractive feminine head cascading into strong well angled shoulders and fore chest, deep ribs, short well balanced silhouette, 1 had slightly better angles on back angulation. She moved beautifully my BBIS

Special AOC Open Dog/Bitch 0/0

Veteran 8/4

1: West's; Sheigra Swing on a Star JW. Black & Tan Feminine head and with correct eye pigmentation, Strong through her neck into correct shoulder placement. Deep brisket, firm loin with a balanced outline. Broad stifle. Her sparkling movement won her crowning glory. My BVIS.

2: Blackley & Salero's; Sh Ch Glenntree Ruby Slippers. Black & Tan an additionally stunning bitch of lovely type which could quite easily swap places with 1. Slightly bigger in overall proportions but equally oozed the same qualities of 1. A very difficult decision to make on the day but felt that 1 outshone her on this occasion with her sparkling movement.

Minor Puppy Dog 2/0

1: Kyna Zac Dingle at Asquanne

2: Lanvin of Merrily

Minor Puppy Bitch 6/2

1: Beswick's Cachel Ice Maiden: This dark blue roan bitch had a very pleasing head with balanced planes giving a kind expression. My hands just flowed over her strong neck with sloping shoulders, around her ribs and along a straight top line. Nicely made throughout with correct angles front and rear and tight padded feet. Stunning overall profile, loved her BMPIS.

2 Harris's: Chalkhill Solitare, Sweet dark blue roan bitch, with feminine head with depth to muzzle. Lovely to go over but not as strong on angulation as 1 at the moment.

Puppy Dog 1/0

1: Webster's; Kyna Dingle at Asquanne

Puppy Bitch 2/0

1: Mace's: Cachel Moviestar for Fonesse. A black bitch with nicely chiseled head, correct toned eye giving a soft expression. Attractive reach of neck sloping into clean shoulders and well placed upper arm. Deep well sprung ribs with short loin. Beautifully constructed throughout. Standing on good bone and tight feet. One more to watch in the future. Loved her too. BPIS.

2: Corcoran's; Troverothway Maisie May. This sweet blue roan bitch always seems to come up against strong competition when i've been fortunate enough to judge her. Feminine and well proportioned throughout with a very sweet head and expression. Sparkled round the ring just dropping her top line a little.

Junior Dog/Bitch 3/1

1: Bavin's; Rojoys Chase the Dream JW.

2: Rickwoods; Sulintay Lasienna

Maiden Dog/Bitch 4/3

1: Quigley's: Bitcon Free for All. Dark blue roan bitch, well constructed feminine head, ample neck flowing into a balanced body construction. Moved elegantly around the ring.

Tyro 6/2

1: Cox's; Gardenstone Pale Rider for Suvern

2: Cassidy's; Manchela Hugo Boss. Light Blue Roan dog with a masculine but attractive balanced head, expressive eye and correctly set ears. Nicely made throughout standing fore square with neat tight feet. Short hocks, moved with drive.

Graduate Dog/Bitch 5/0

1: Kettle's: Lujesa Sky's the Limit. A Black dog with lots to like. Masculine but delightful head, muscular neck sloping into a powerful body. Correct angulation front and rear on dense bone and tight padded feet. Shown in excellent condition.

2: Shapland's: Candyluie Dancing Star at Deracor. A feminine but good sized black bitch with adequate bone and width to body. Ample neck with well balanced angles throughout. I'm sure she will do well in the future.

Special Beginners Dog/Bitch 1/0

1: Rickwood's; Sunlintay Lasienna.

Open Dog 6/3

1: Beswick's: Jacardi of Merrily (IMP FR). This young man stood out for me. Aforementioned masculine young gold dog of good size and shape with substantial bone. Gracefully constructed, with a captivating balanced head and correct eye pigment. Strong front assembly, well laid back shoulders with deep brisket, level top line on the move with muscular, robust hindquarters. Tight padded feet and short hocks for drive. A fabulous consistent line up of quality dogs but for me he had the overall edge on the day. My BIS.

2: Hillary's Sheigra Mister Snuggles at Edasly.

Open Bitch 2/0

1: West's; Sheigra Shining Star JW ShCM. Sweet head with ample neck into strong shoulders and deep ribs. Good width of body and correct angulation front and rear, giving her an overall balanced outline. Tight padded feet and elbows. Strong but not over done in profile.

2: Covington's; Molkara Crystal Rose with Silverdust JW ShCM. Another beautiful bitch with attractive balanced head, expressive eye and correct set ears. Clean neck into well balanced body. Strong stifles and tight feet. Equally and nice, but preferred 1 on the day.
